KOR MAP POLICY

The prices listed on our website are the current MAP pricing for now. In the future, the website will offer pricing to internet customers at MAP + 10%, adding even more profit in for you, but for now, everyone is going to be at the same price as the website, which can be used for reference when dealing with customers. We all need to work together and preserve the profit margins or we're going to be cutting our own throats in the long-term. Now, I can't TELL you what to sell something for...that would be price-fixing, punishable by law, and I have better things to do than hard-time upstate, lol. However, I CAN tell you that you are in violation of the Dealer Agreement if you break our agreement to advertise any of our items below the MAP price, and that you've just breached contract. Any dealers who advertise our products below MAP will have their account immediately suspended from our system, and if not remedied in 48 hours, will be deleted from our system without any warning or dispute. Just gone. Removed. Bye bye. Don't be that guy.

By Signing this form, I hereby agree to uphold the Minimum Advertised Price agreement as shown on this page, and agree that any KOR product advertised for less than our specific MAP price puts your account in suspense immediately, and then deleted permanently if not remedied within 48 hours.
