BEAR PAW

This classic quilt block pattern is just a handy reference guide in case you wanted to make your own “matching” Personality Quiz Quilt Block (of course, I won’t tell if it’s not actually your “match”!).

NOTES

Skill Level	Beginner
Finished Size	12¼ x 12¼”
Seam Allowance	All cutting instructions have a ¼” seam allowance factored in
Yardage/WOF	Width of fabric (WOF) is assumed to be 42”
HST Method	Yardage is calculated based on making 4 half square triangles (HST) at a time; instructions for how to do so are on page 2

FEISTY, ADVENTUROUS, TOUGH & DETERMINED

BASIC REQUIREMENTS

	Fabric Requirements	Cutting Requirements (12½”)	Cutting Requirements (12”)*
 Fabric A	Fat Eighth	2¼ x 2¼” (1) 4 x 4” (8)	2 x 2” (1) 4 x 4” (8)
 Fabric B	Fat Eighth	2¼ x 2¼” (4) 4 x 4” (4) 5¼ x 2¼” (4)	2¼ x 2¼” (4) 4 x 4” (4) 5 x 2” (4)

If you’d like to make a sampler quilt with all the Personality Quiz Quilt Blocks, you’ll need to make a 12” block: I’ve done this by simply adjusting the center cross (which means the block loses its perfect proportions. This doesn’t bother me, but just wanted to give fair warning!)*

BLOCK ASSEMBLY

HIT THE ACCELERATOR

Never made four HSTs at a time? Don't worry, it's easy! Instead of cutting out individual triangles (groan!), or sewing $\frac{1}{4}$ " seams down either side of a diagonal (smaller groan), all you need to do is sew a square of Fabric A to a square of Fabric B (right sides together) with a $\frac{1}{4}$ " seam around the border. Then cut corner to corner (see illustration to the right). And presto: 4 HSTs!

Sew four 4" square sandwiches of Fabric A and Fabric B to make the 16 HSTs needed. Cut corner to corner, press, and then trim HSTs to $2\frac{1}{4}$ ".

! WATCH OUT: this method creates bias edges, but all this means is that when pressing your seams, truly press, don't iron back and forth (this will minimize the pulling of the fabric + keep the HSTs from becoming wonky).

PAW PRINTS

Assemble four of the corner units (or should we say "paw"?!) as follows:

BLOCK ASSEMBLY CONT'D

IT'S AS EASY AS A, B (THERE'S NO C)!

A

Assemble the rows

B

Then assemble the block

GET SOCIAL!

I love to see your work! Make sure to post your finished quilt block to Instagram and tag it with #WhichQuiltBlockAreYou and @broadclothstudio (because I don't want to miss it!)
