

THE BISCUIT FACTORY

Creative Workshops

Exploring Pop Culture and Nostalgia through Zine and Badge Making with Mack Sproates

In this workshop we will be creating our own mini zines and badges inspired by our favourite films, tv shows, fandoms and characters. By using collage, creative writing and illustration activities we will explore how pop culture can influence our art and stories. Featuring an appearance from the DIY badge-maker! Whether you're new to zines or are a zine master, it'd be great to see you there.

Mack Sproates (they/he) is a theatre-maker, facilitator and zine maker. They make joyful, silly and educational work which aims to help marginalised people's voices be seen and heard. They self publish their own comics and zines such as Hail to the Zine Baby and Stay Home Stay Queer. Find out more about their work on Instagram: @mjgroovysproates @hailtothezinebaby

Further information:

This workshop is designed for all levels of experience, suitable for ages 16+

Participants are encouraged to arrive around 10-15 minutes ahead of their workshop.

There is parking on site and we have 2 free overflow car parks on Bermondsey Street and opposite at The Holy Biscuit.

Please contact art@thebiscuitfactory.com with any queries.