

Buttons, Buttons

Before Reading	During Reading	After Reading
Q1: Let's look at the cover. What do you see? A1: I see lots of buttons! Q2: What are some colors and shapes you see? A2: Possible answers: I see round buttons. I see red buttons. I see a green button. I see a star button.	Q1: What shape are the green buttons on page 4? A1: The green buttons are round. Q2: How many yellow buttons can you count on page 6? A2: I count three yellow buttons.	Q1: Are belly buttons real buttons? A1: No, belly buttons are not real buttons. Q2: Why did the author put belly buttons on the last page? A2: She put belly buttons on the last page to make a funny ending.

Buttons Buttons
© 1994 Creative Teaching Press Inc.
Written by Rozanne Lanczak Williams
Photographed by Keith Bergher

Buttons, Buttons
Revised Edition © 2017 Creative Teaching Press Inc.
Illustrated by Out of Our Minds Studio
Art Director: Moonhee Pak
Project Director: Stacey Faulkner

Published in the United States of America by:
Creative Teaching Press Inc.
6262 Katella Ave.
Cypress, CA 90630

Buttons, Buttons

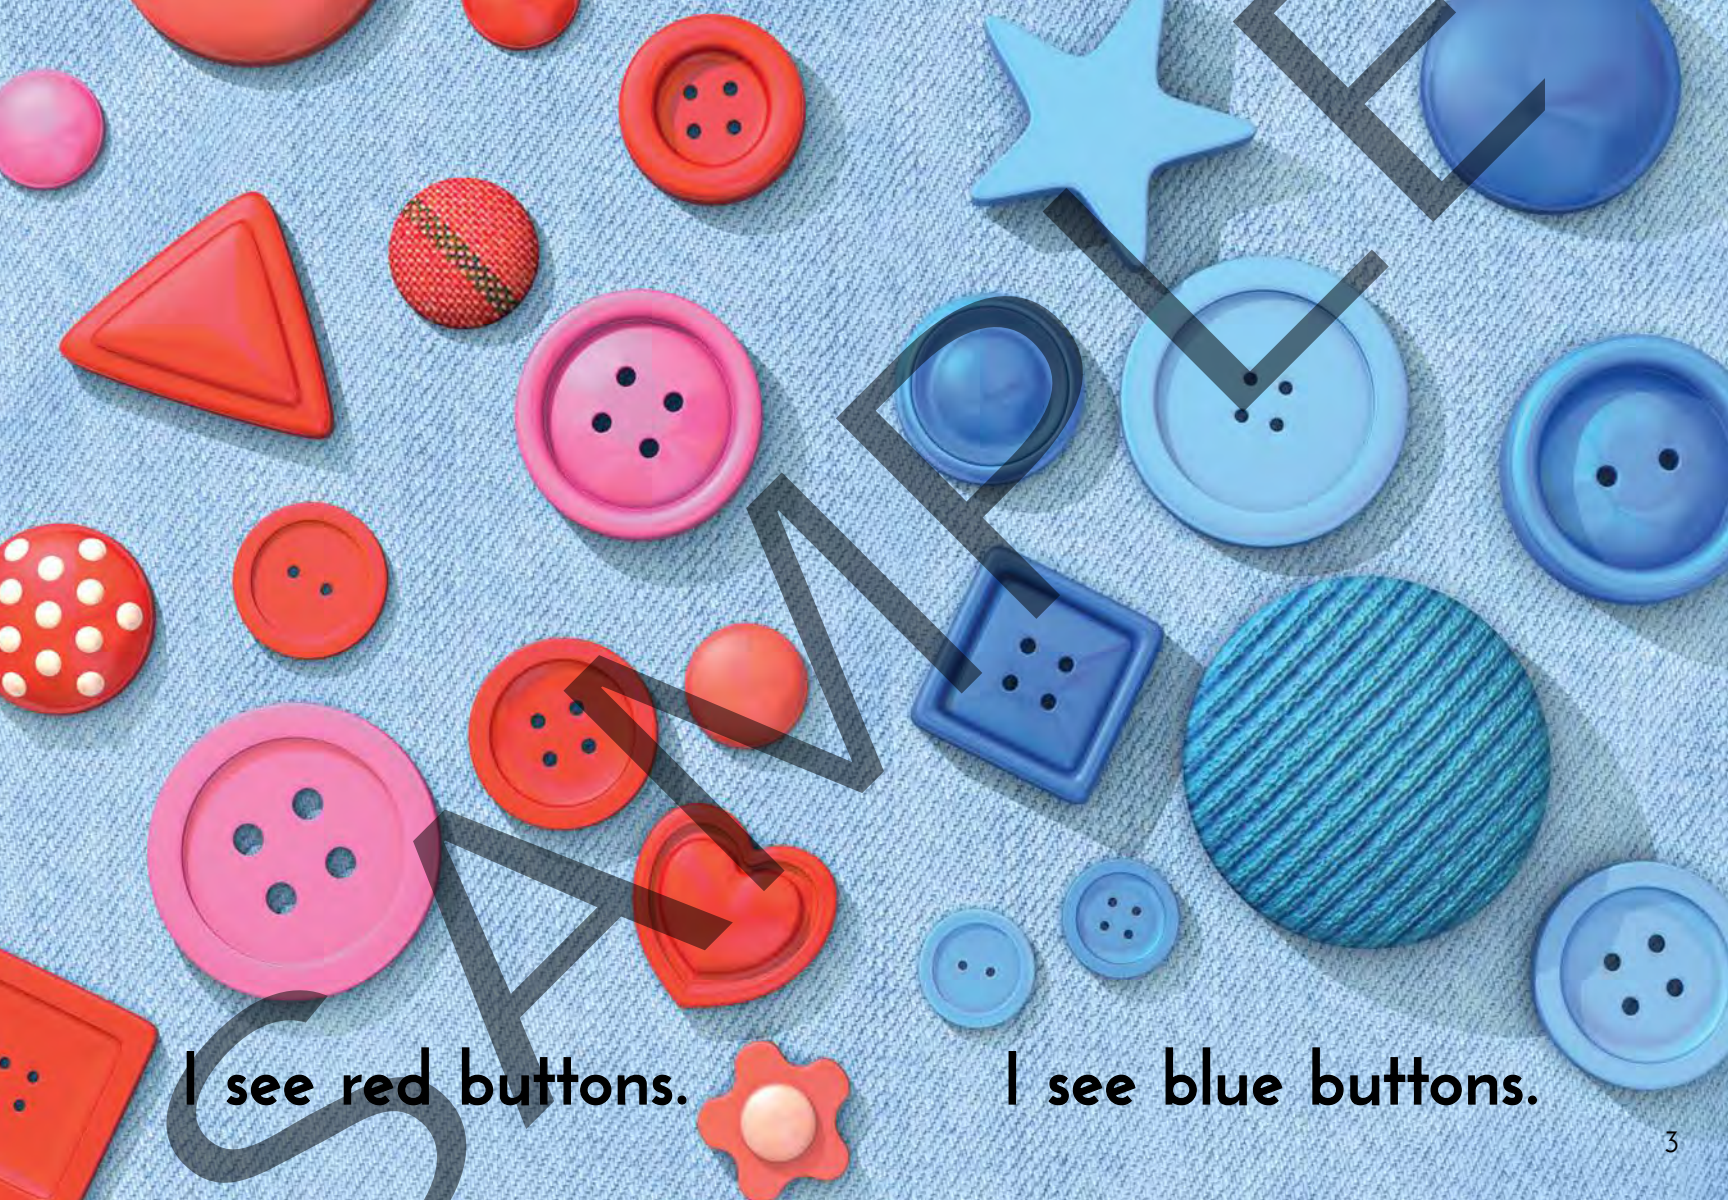

I see one button.

I see two buttons.

I see red buttons.

I see blue buttons.