

There's a Monster in the Tree

There's a Monster in the Tree

Before Reading	During Reading	After Reading
Q1: There are monsters everywhere in this fun sing-along book. Where is the monster on the cover? A1: The big green monster on the cover is in the tree. He looks like he is hiding. Q2: On the title page, the boy is introducing us to all six of the monsters we will meet in the book. What do you think the boy is saying? A2: Possible answers: Maybe the boy is saying: "Come out, monsters. Let's play!" "Let's go to my house." "Let's play hide-and-seek."	Q1: Where is the big green monster, the monster with the orange hair, and the big red monster? A1: The big green monster is in the tree. The monster with the orange hair is at the door. The big red monster is in the hall. Q2: What are the yellow monster, the monster with the purple hair, and the monster with the green dress doing? A2: The yellow monster is listening to a chicken sing. The monster with the purple hair is hiding inside a pot. The monster with the green dress is sweeping.	Q1: Where did all the monsters go? What did they say? A1: All the monsters went to bed. "Good night" is what they said. Q2: Can you think of another rhyming verse to the song? A2: Possible answers: There's a little boy asleep on the bed . . . "Good night" is what he said. There's a monster on a log, on a log. There's a monster on a log, on a log. There's a monster on a log, and she's playing with a frog. There's a monster on a log, on a log.

There's a Monster in the Tree
 © 1994 Creative Teaching Press Inc.
 Written by Rozanne Lanczak Williams
 Illustrated by Kathleen Dunne

Revised Edition © 2017 Creative Teaching Press Inc.
 Illustrated by Richard Carbajal
 Art Director: Moonhee Pak
 Project Director: Stacey Faulkner

Published in the United States of America by:
 Creative Teaching Press Inc.
 6262 Katella Ave.
 Cypress, CA 90630

All rights reserved. No part of this book may be reproduced in any form without the written permission of Creative Teaching Press Inc.

There's a Monster in the Tree

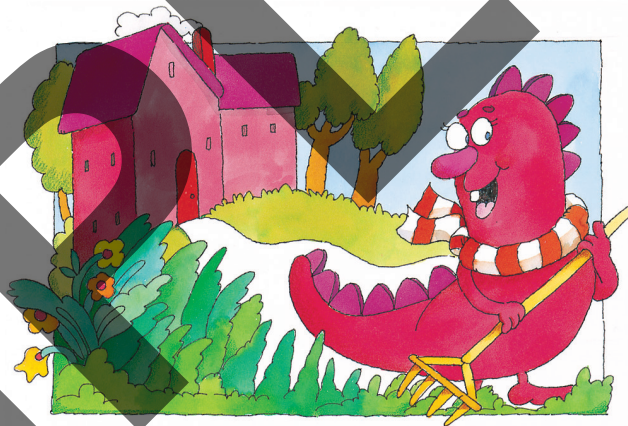

Sing to the tune of
"Put Your Finger in the Air"

Make a Mini Book

This monster is saying hello.

6

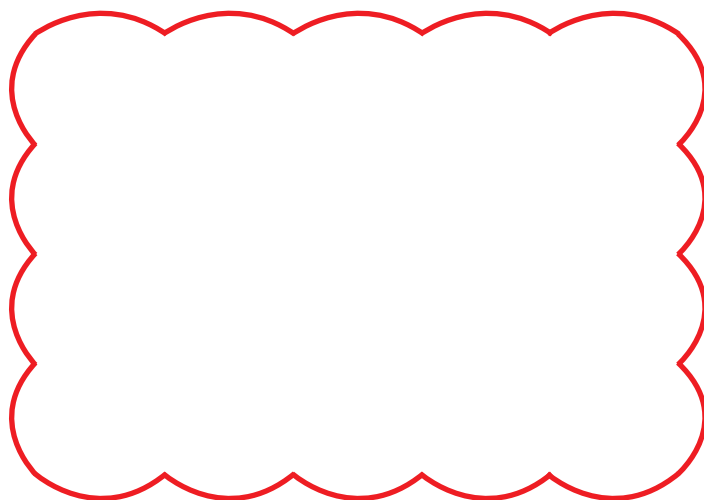

This monster is raking the grass.

3

This monster is picking flowers.

2

This is my monster.

7