Can You Read a Map?

Little Pigs Lane

Lost Sheep St.

Red Riding Road

Written by Rozanne Lanczak Williams
Illustrated by Jan Bryan-Hunt

Can You Read a Map?

| Before Reading	During Reading	After Reading
Q1: Let's look at the cover and read the title. What is going on? A1: The wolf is lost. He is using a map to find his way. Q2: Where do you think the wolf wants to go? A2: Possible answers: I think the wolf wants to find the three little pigs. The wolf wants to find his house. The wolf wants to find Little Red Riding Hood.	Q1: You can see story maps in the book. They show where places are but also tell the story of each fairy tale. Which fairy tales do you see? A1: I see story maps of Goldilocks and the Three Bears, Little Red Riding Hood, Hansel and Gretel, and Cinderella. Q2: What does the wolf's map show? A2: The wolf's map shows places where he is a character in the story.	Q1: Let's look at the last page. Which way should the wolf go? A1: Possible answers: I think the wolf should go to the forest. I think the wolf should go to the vegetarian restaurant and stay out of trouble! Q2: Which fairy tale map do you like the best? Can you retell the story using the map? A2: Answers will vary.

Can You Read a Map?

Lost Sheep St.

Pig Road

Escape Route
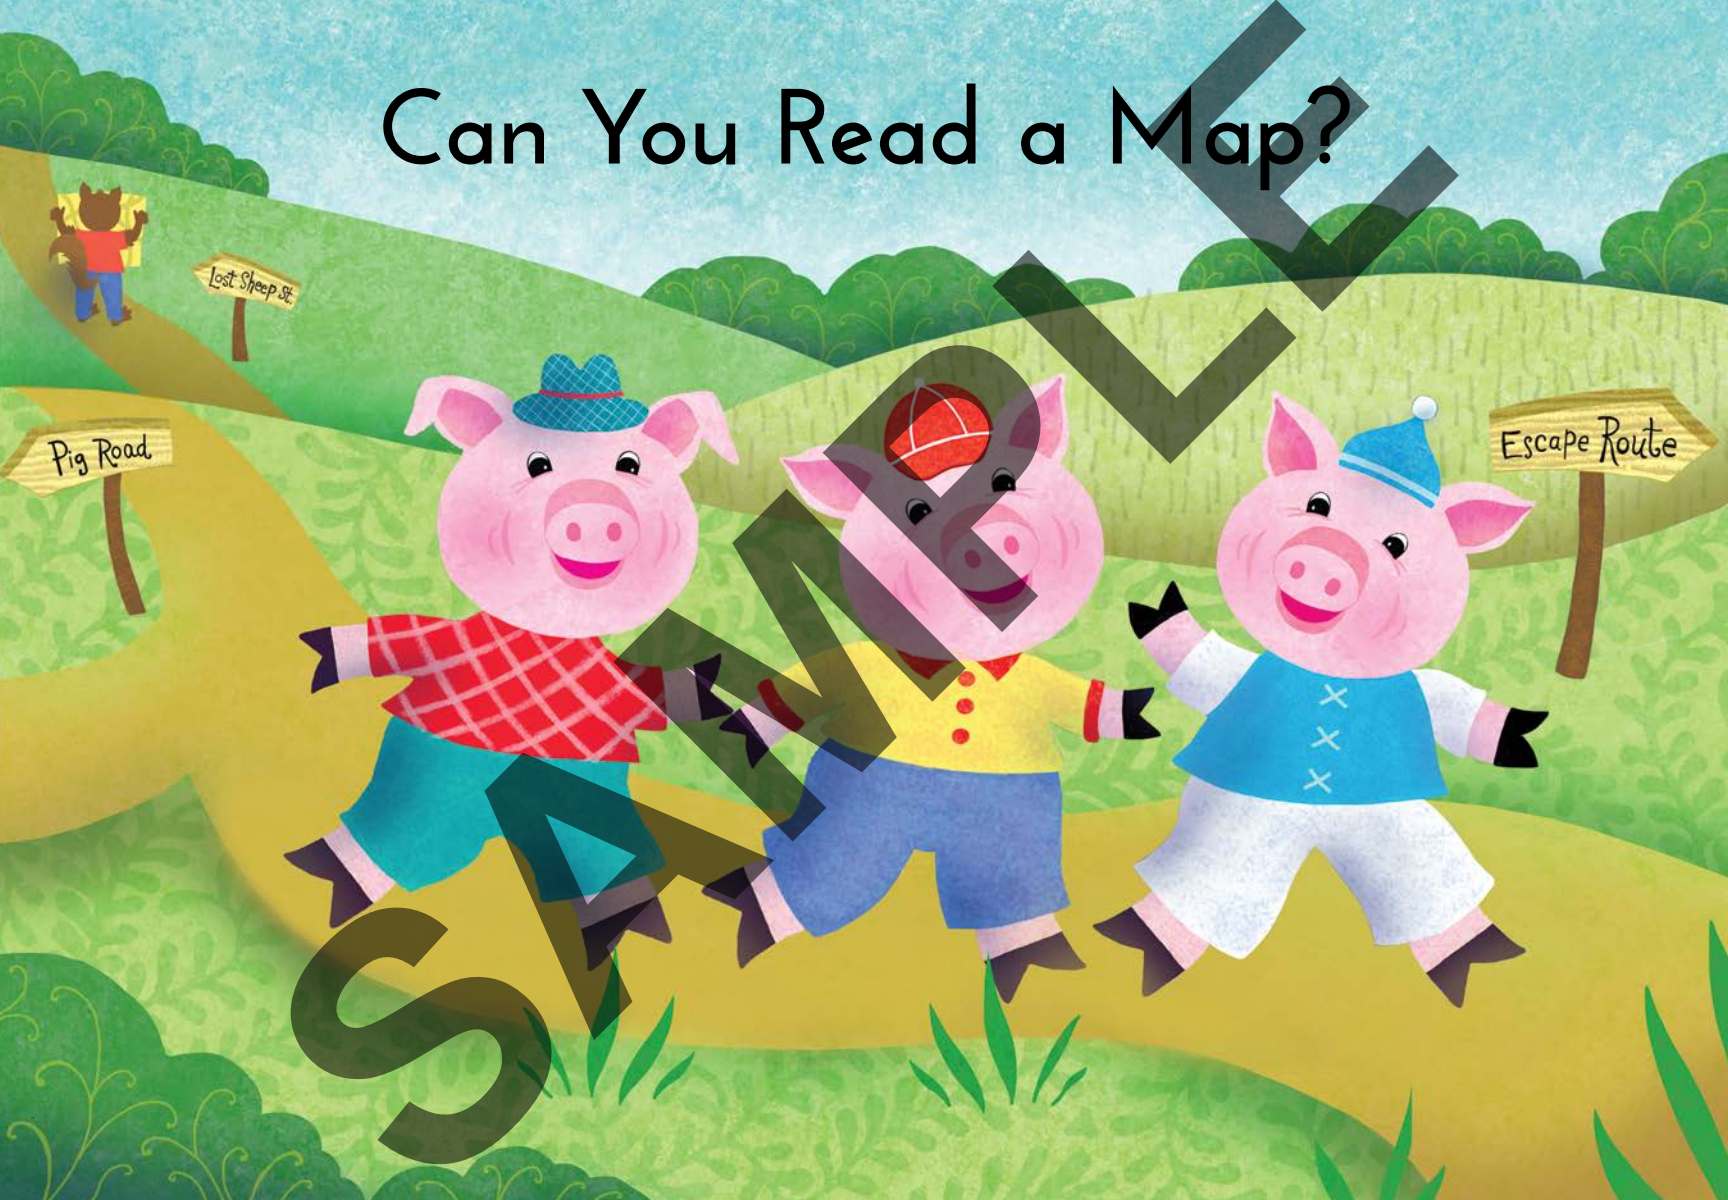

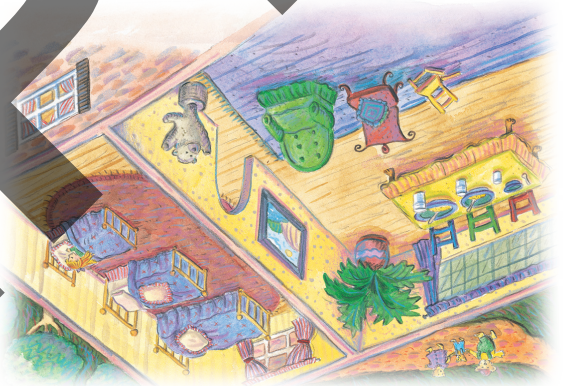

Make a Mini Book

☼ Cut along the solid lines.

☼ Fold on the dotted lines.

☼ Write your name on the cover.

☼ Draw a map for the last page. Read your book.

I Can Read a Map
by Joe

3

houses and roads.
This map shows
I can read a map.

2

inside of a house.
This map shows the
I can read a map.

4

I can read a map.
This map shows
my bedroom.

1

I Can Read a Map

by

_____

_____