

How Can I Help?

Before Reading	During Reading	After Reading
Q1: Let's look at the cover. What is the girl doing? A1: The girl is watering the flowers. Q2: What do you think the book will be about? A2: Possible answers: I think the book is about how children can help. The book is about helping in the garden.	Q1: How can the children help at home? A1: A boy can wash and dry the dishes. Children can put toys away. A boy can feed the rabbit, and a girl can take care of her baby sister. A girl can water the garden, and a girl can make her bed. Q2: What do the children do when they are done helping? A2: The children are playing together.	Q1: How can you help at home? A1: Possible answers: I can wash the dishes. I can feed my fish. I can put my books away. Q2: What do you like to do when you are done helping? A2: Possible answers: When I am done helping, I ride my bike. I play hopscotch. I read a book.

Special thanks to Sherri Mills, who graciously opened her home to us and provided lots of help.
