

Special Memories

Like the time you went to the zoo
Or the day you got your pet.

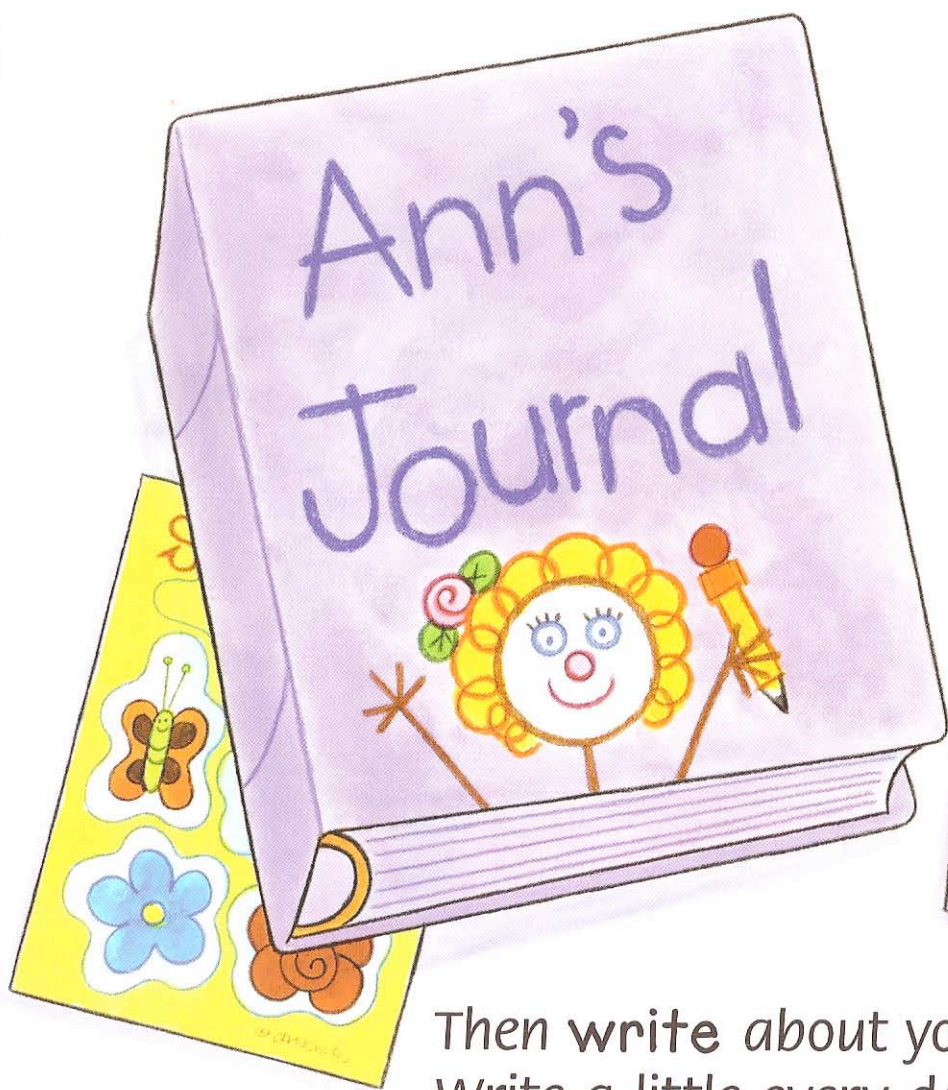

Remember the day you baked cookies
With your mom or with a friend.

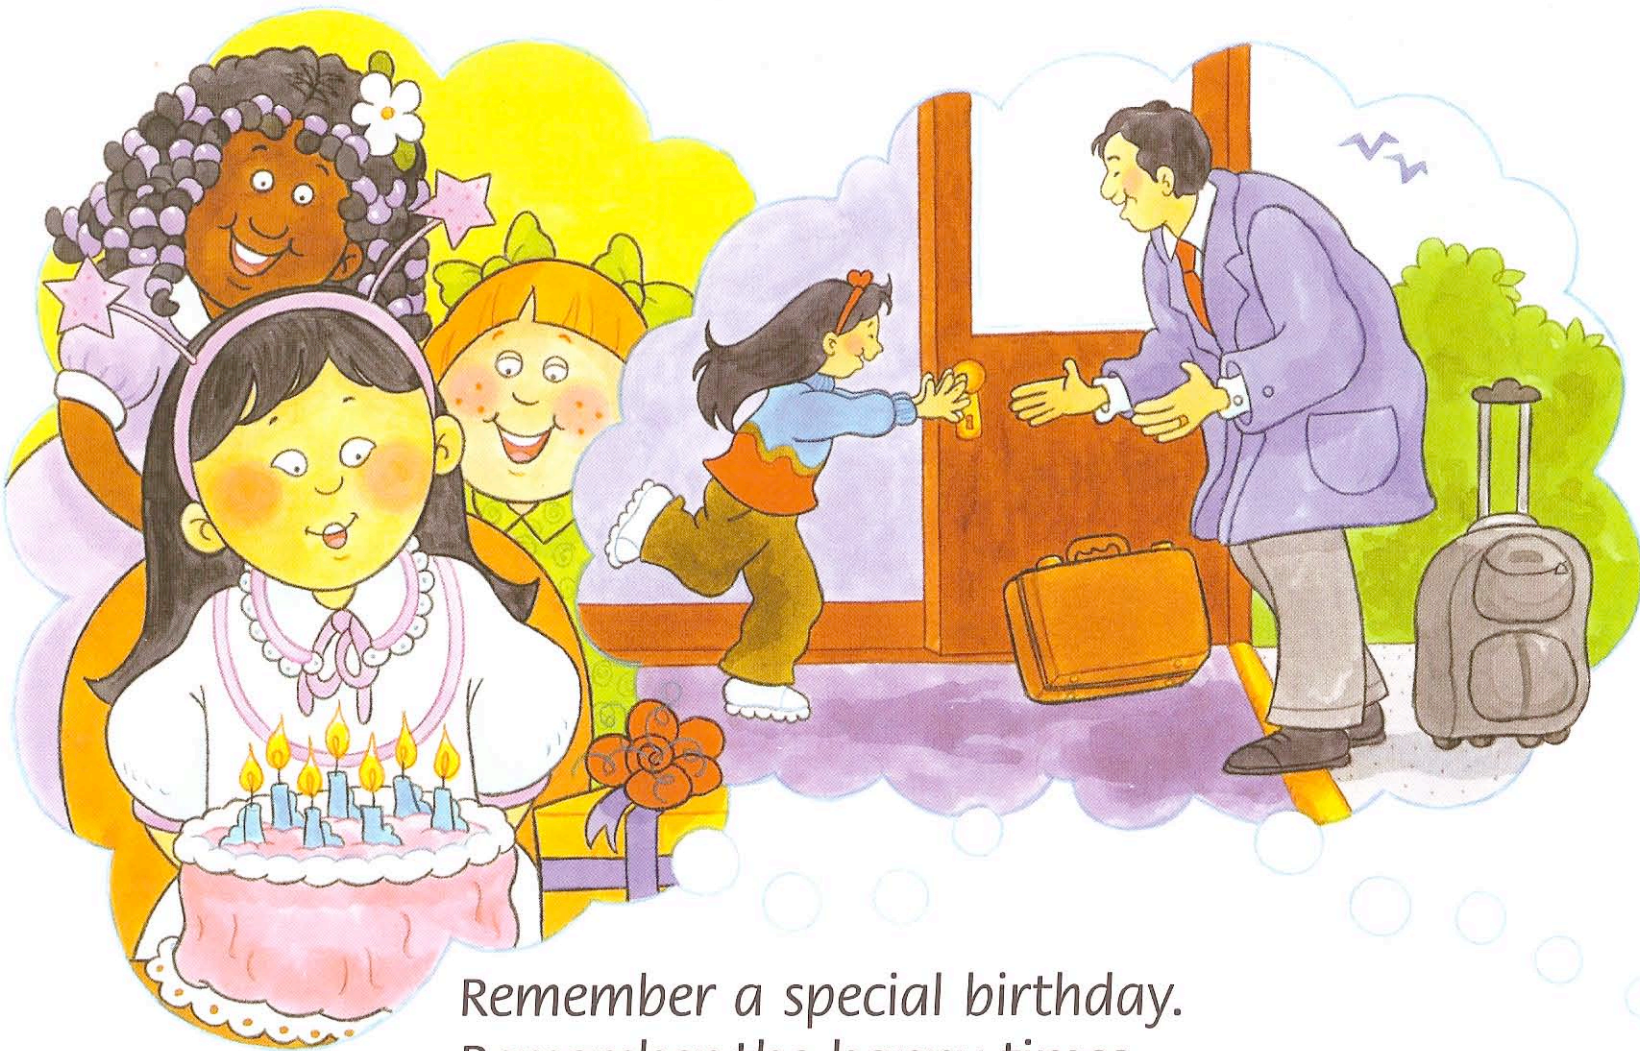

Remember another special day
You wished would never end.

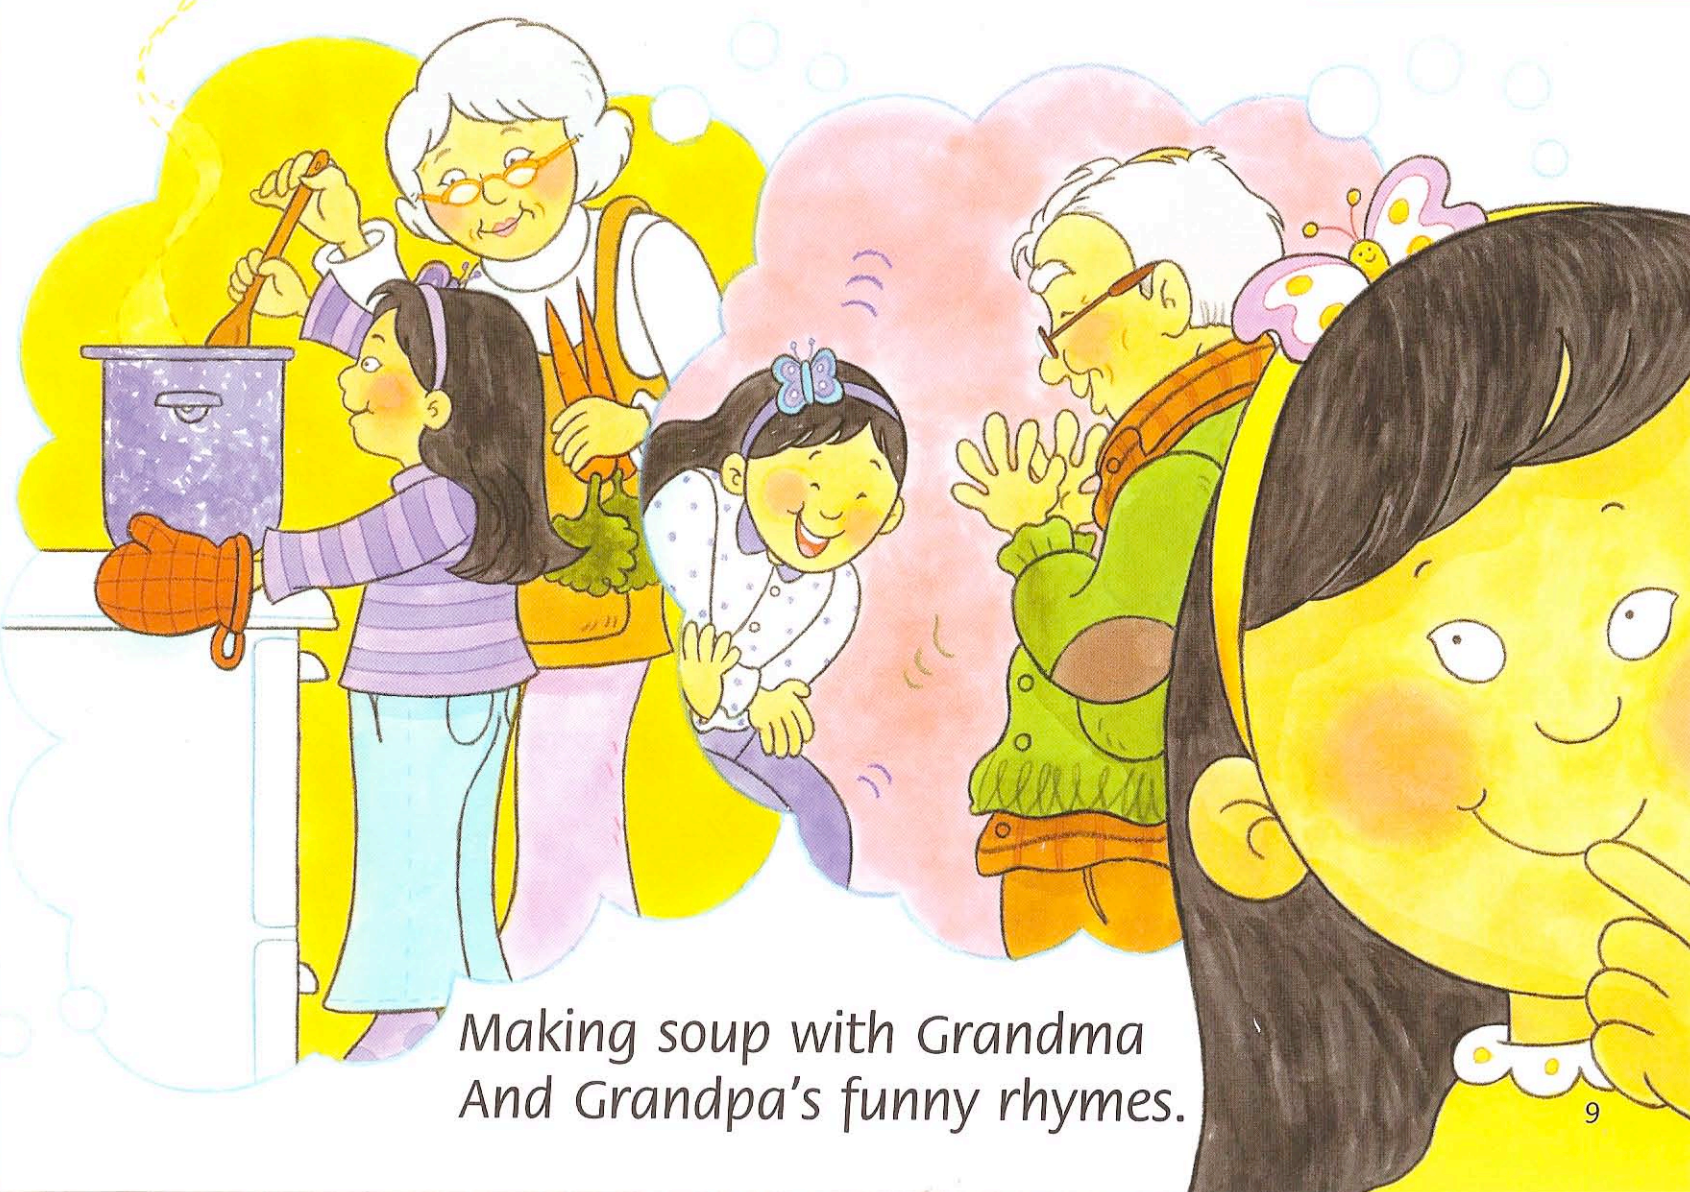

Think about your memories.
Don't let them fade away.

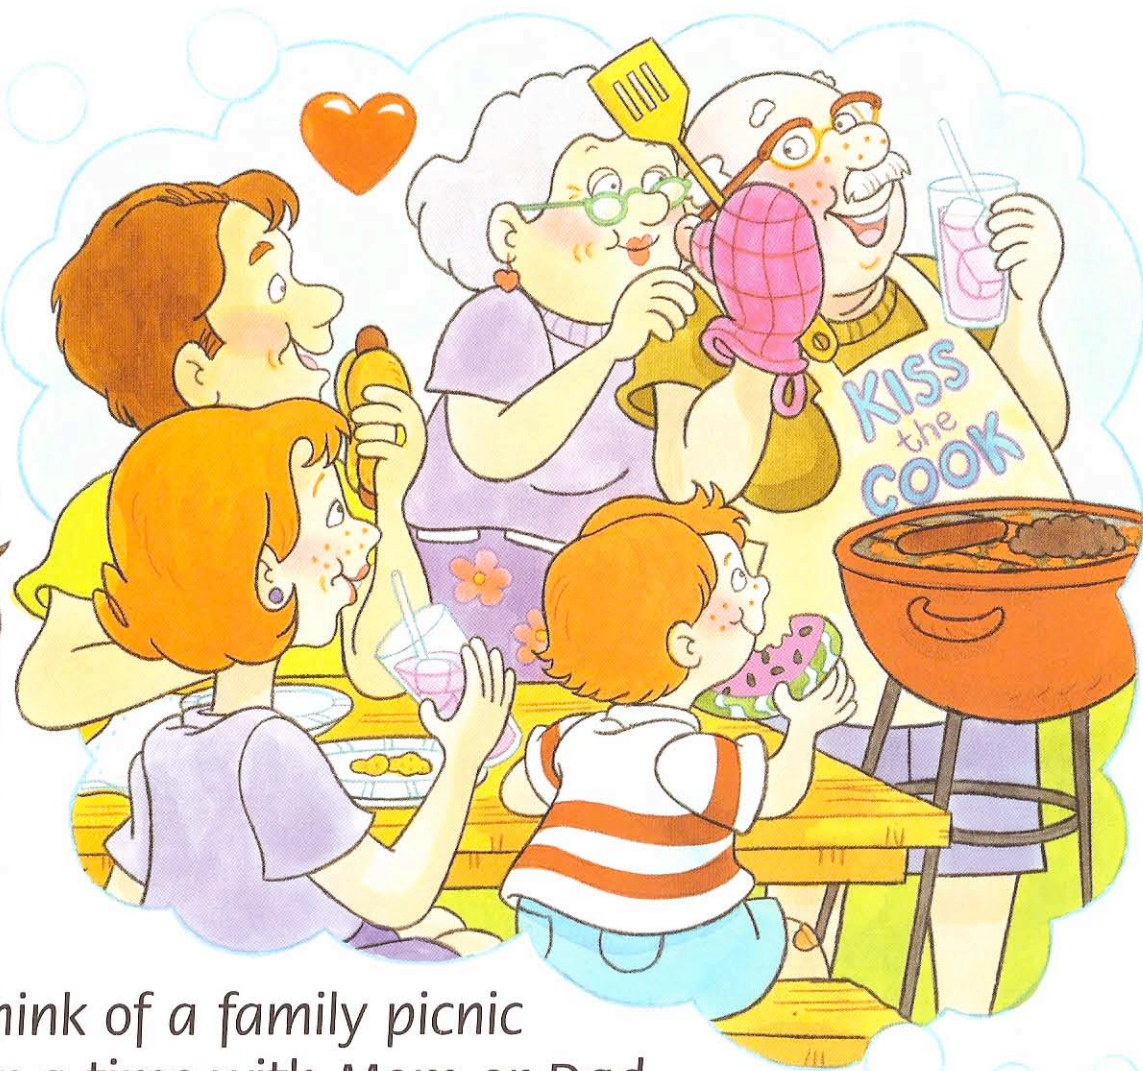

Then write about your memories.
Write a little every day.

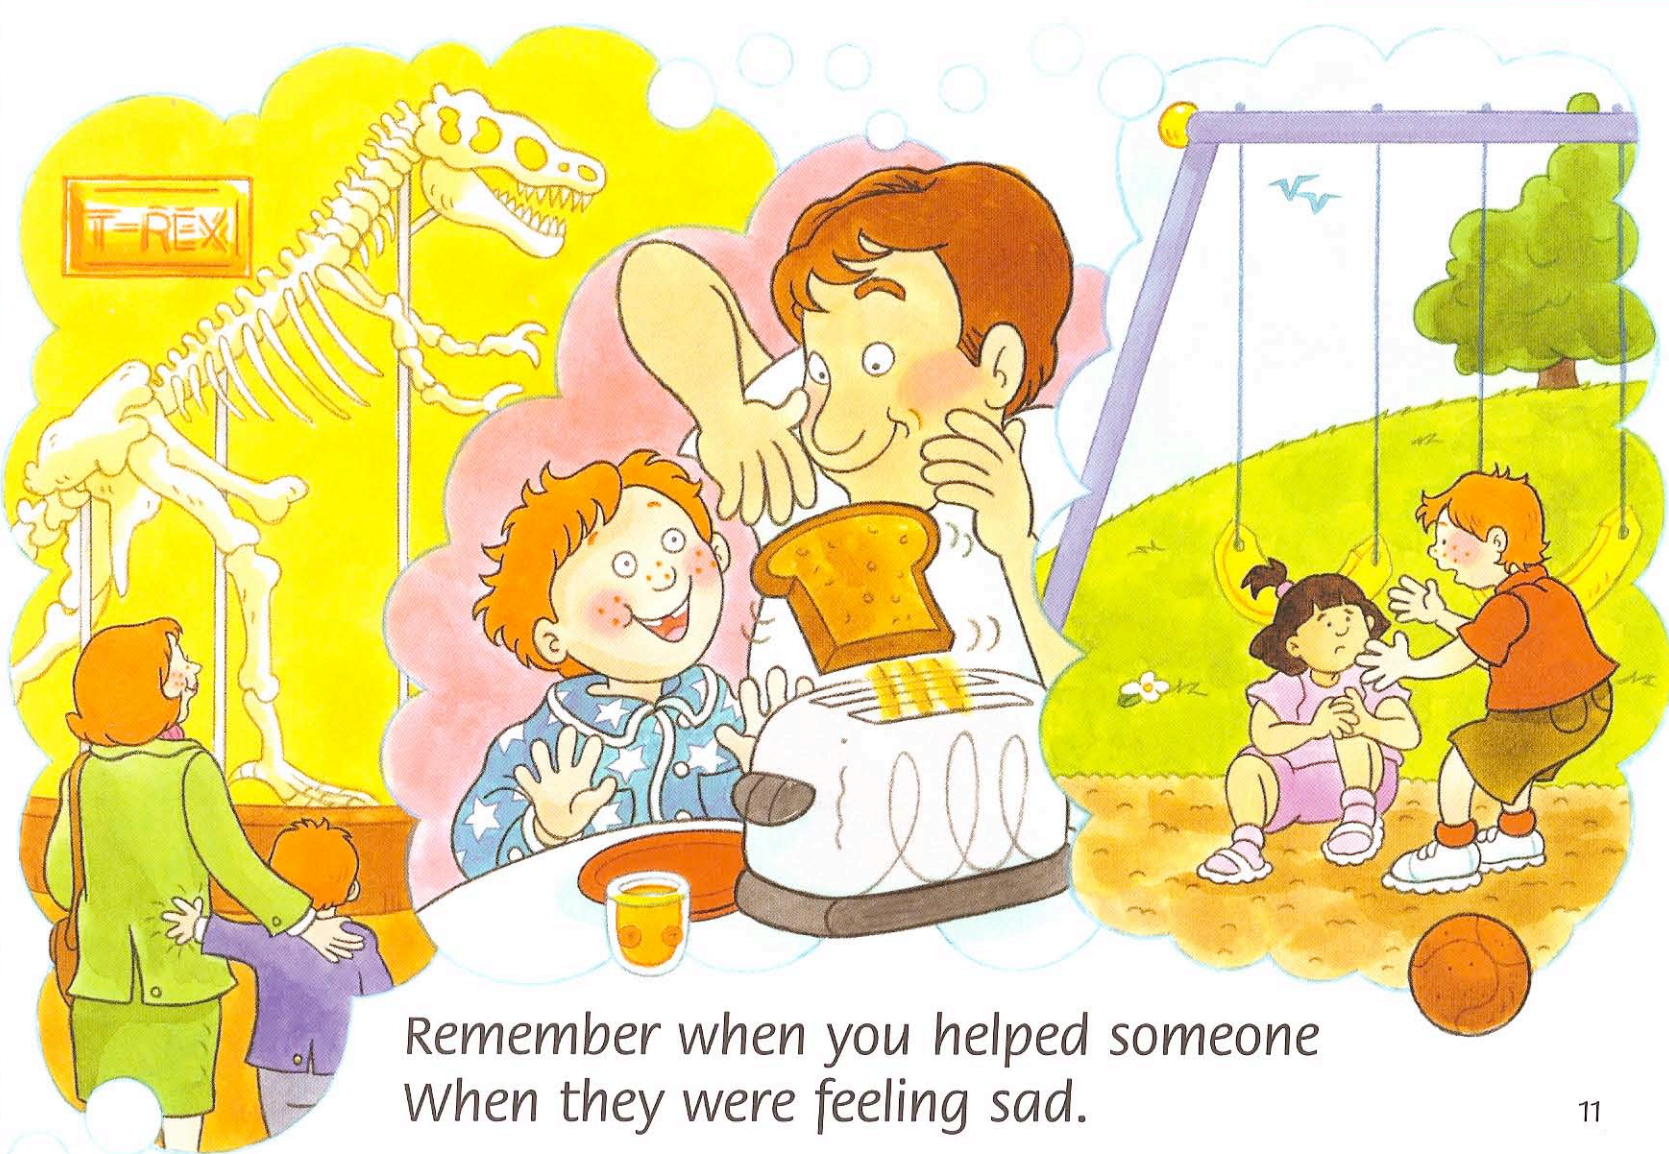

Remember a special birthday.
Remember the happy times—

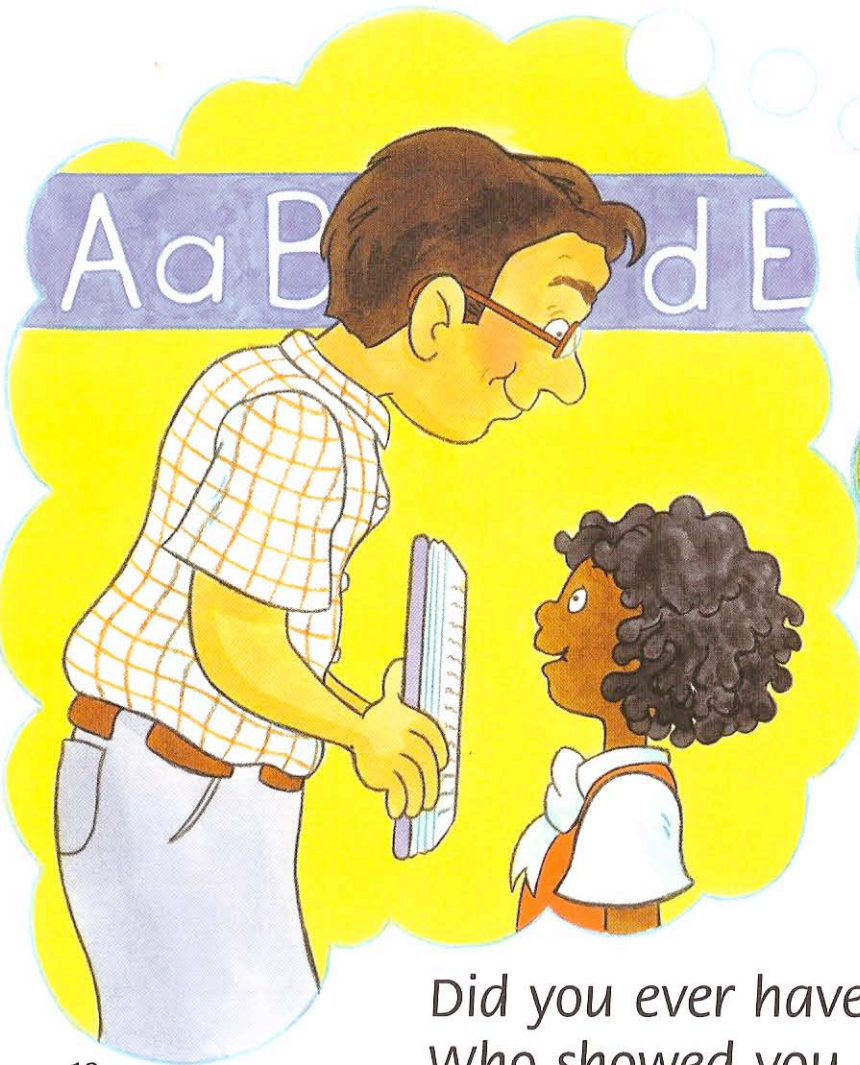

Making soup with Grandma
And Grandpa's funny rhymes.

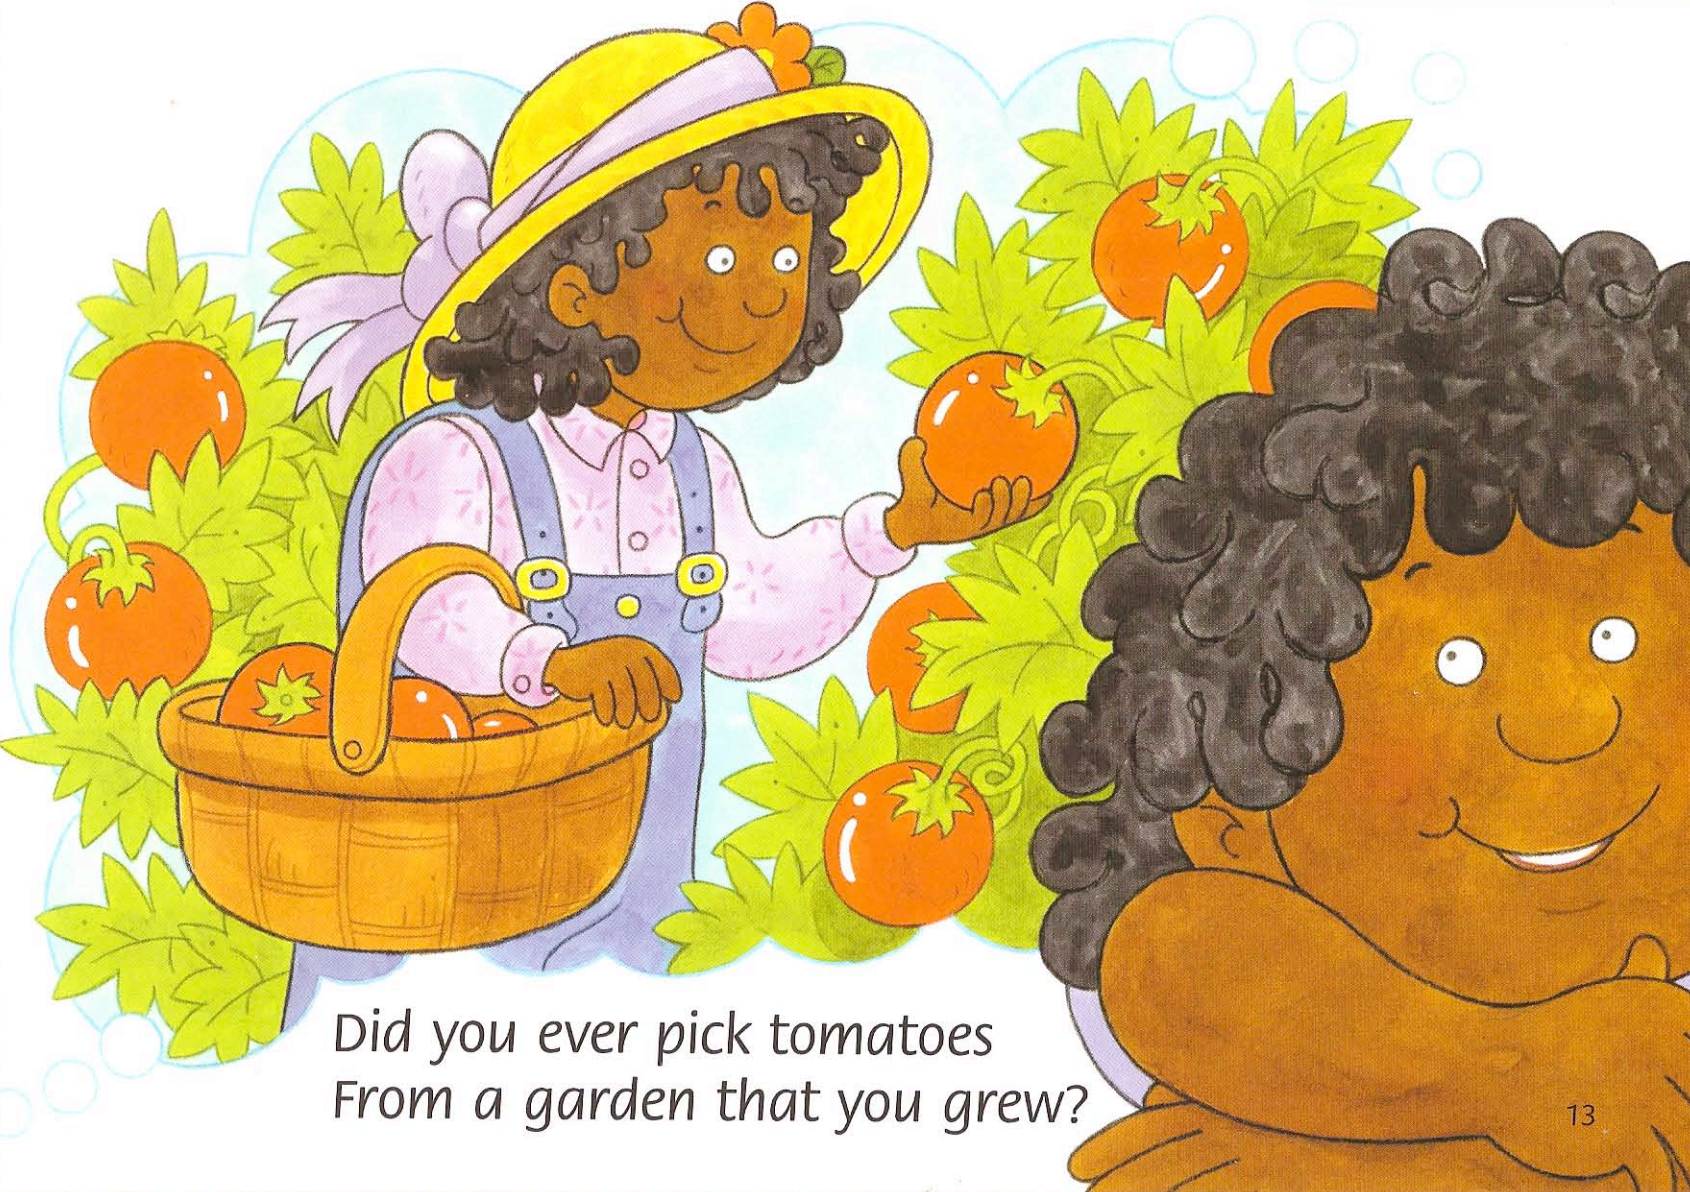

Think of a family picnic
Or a time with Mom or Dad.

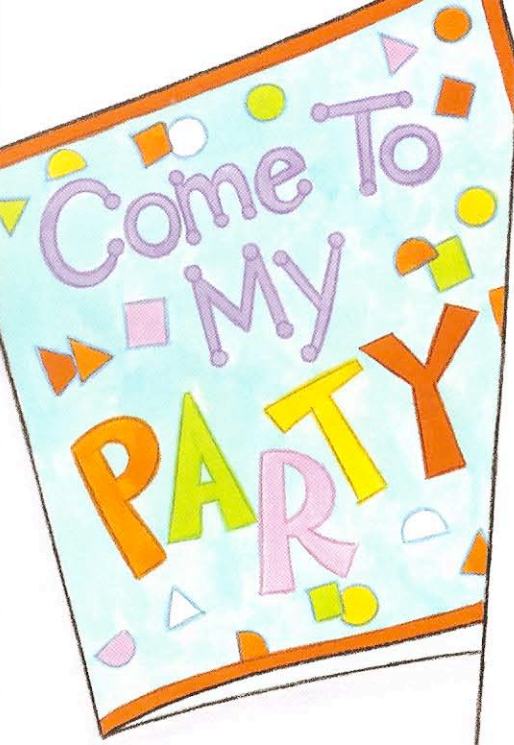

Remember when you helped someone
When they were feeling sad.

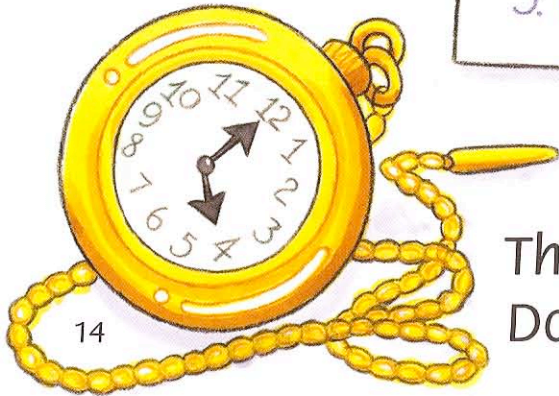

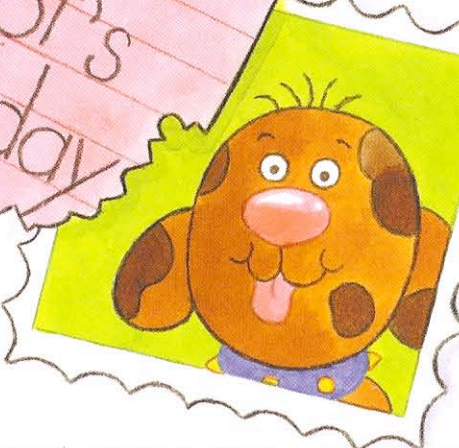

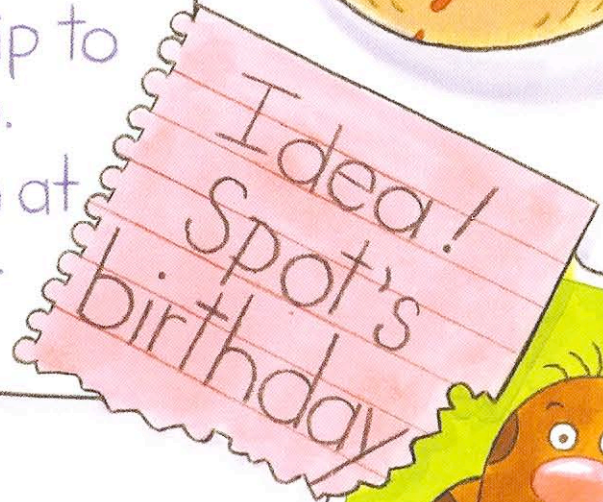

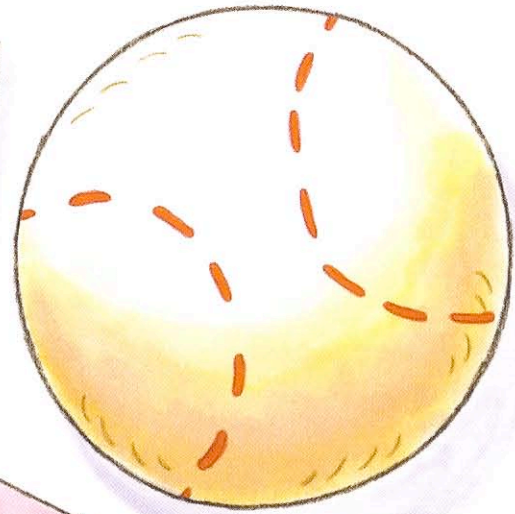

Did you ever have a teacher
Who showed you something new?

Did you ever pick tomatoes
From a garden that you grew?

- Things to write about
1. Fishing with Dad.
 2. Great Grandpa's railroad watch.
 3. My class trip to the museum.
 4. Our vacation at the seashore.
 5. My bird.

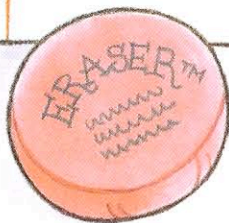

Think about your memories.
Don't let them fade away.

○ I remember
Spot's first ○ birthday. It was so fun!

○ Today, I

Then write about your memories.
Write a little every day.

Your Turn to Write

- 1 Keep a list of special memories in your journal.
Write in your journal, a little every day.
- 2 Help with your family's photo book or scrapbook.
Write captions to go with the pictures.
