

Add some luxury to your daily shower with these 5 fancy bar soaps

It's been several years since body washes took over our collective cleansing routine, but as consumers look for products with simple ingredients that generate less waste, bar soap is making a comeback. Gone are the days of the sad sliver of soap lingering in the corners of the bathtub. Today's bar soaps are far more sophisticated — luxurious, even. They're also reasonably priced, with even fancier brands being within reach.

4. Marlowe. Men's Body Soap

MARLOWE." MEN'S BODY SOAP
DIRECTION Work soop	NS into lather and cleanse skin, Rinse,
NET \	WT 7 OZ (198.4 g)

From: Target

Cost: $4.99 for a 7 oz. bar

This soap is the epitome of an elevated skincare basic. Marlowe. is Target's latest exclusive skincare line, and it does not disappoint. The sleek minimalist aesthetic of the brand will appeal to people of all genders. This huge block of soap will last ages, lathers up great and treats skin kindly with the Marlowe. M. Blend, a mix of extracts including willow bark and deep sea algae, which help to lessen inflammation and irritation, and antioxidant green tea extract. It's also a great price for both the size and quality.