Responsive Call to Worship

1st Sunday of Lent

For everything there is a season. In this season, our Stronghold,

Break down the walls we build to keep You and Your people at bay.

Rebuild us in your image, broken, pierced, and desperate for Your presence.

Let us worship the Lord, our Stronghold.

2nd Sunday of Lent

For everything there is a season. In this season, our Lord of Loving Faithfulness,

Sweep away our earthbound desires and replace them with a longing for Your heavenly grace.

Hold us close to your side that we may weep away our sorrows in your wound.

Let us worship our Lord of Loving Faithfulness.

3rd Sunday of Lent

For everything there is a season. In this season, our Light,

We are blinded by our darkness. Lead us.

You lost Your life for this purpose. We lose everything for the sake of Your kingdom.

Let us worship the Lord, our Light.

4th Sunday of Lent

For everything there is a season. In this season, our Inheritance,

Remind us that we are Yours, and You are ours.

Help us to cast away all that entangles us, Entrusting ourselves to Your keeping.

Let us worship the Lord, our Inheritance.

5th Sunday of Lent

For everything there is a season. In this season, Lord of love,

Teach us to hate sin, abhor evil, and reject falsehood.

May we love our enemies, and, even more difficult, those closest to us.

Let us worship the Lord of love.

6th Sunday of Lent (Palm Sunday)

For everything there is a season. In this season, our Conquering King,

Bring us peace by Your holy war, and make us children by your glory.

Your definitions are so different from ours. May we see rightly, and shout salvation with the stones.

Let us worship the Lord, our Conquering King.
