

RELEASE INSTRUCTIONS

Amblyseius swirskii Predatory Mite

- Use within 18 hours of receipt.
- Place sachets on branches, leaf petioles, or crop wires out of direct sunlight.
- Mini-sachets have attached hooks and can be hung where needed.
- For loose material, place by the scoopful in crops near flowering areas.

Storage: Do not store, Biological beneficials have a very short shelf life expectancy and therefore need to be introduced into the crop as soon as possible after receipt. Storing them for a period can have a negative impact on their quality. If storage is extremely necessary, It is only possible under the following conditions. Storage after receipt: 1-2 days max. Storage temperature should be at 10-15°C/50-60°F and must be placed in the dark. Provide ventilation to prevent CO2 accumulation.

