Calling all aspiring young chefs, boys and girls, we've got a great summer camp for you and your family will love it too! 3 hours, 3 mornings or 3 afternoons... and each camper comes home with a ready-to-cook dinner entrée and dessert for 5 people each night! Follow simple cooking directions at home and dinner's done! Dinners are freeze-able so if siblings attend you can enjoy one entrée that night and freeze another to enjoy later.

Each day will feature different projects/recipes and topics covered include kitchen safety, healthy eating, reading recipes, measuring & more! Each day the campers will enjoy a snack (that they make) and will bring home a dinner entrée and some fun sweet treats that they made to take home too (in addition to their dinner entrees). At the end of the session all campers will assemble a cookbook with all of their recipes to take home and make again and again!

2019 Menus are in testing but will be announced in March!

Raves from Parents of previous year Campers...

"I will be sending my kids to your camp every summer, so please never stop having such a wonderful program!! Not only do I get to NOT cook or shop for dinner this week (love it), but my daughter is having fun with her friends & learning to try and cook new foods. She is so proud of everything she brings home & even her picky brother is eating it!" Nicole Scherer, Berwyn

"LOVE this camp!! So happy not to have to cook this week!" Marie Sung, Paoli

"This is a great camp for boys and girls. My son loved it and said it was his favorite camp ever. The meals every night are a really nice treat. We were impressed with the variety in each meal and how delicious and nutritious the meals were." Christopher Walker, Phoenixville

Appropriate Dress:

- Campers should wear closed toe shoes such as sneakers.
- No open toe shoes, sandals, crocs or flip flops allowed.
- Campers will have aprons to wear while at camp, but stains from ingredients are possible so do not have campers wear special clothing.
- Long hair should be in a pony tail, bun or pulled back to reduce chance of hair getting into food.
- No spaghetti strap shirts, bathing suits, or skirts. Shorts/pants and t-shirts are encouraged.

Allergies:

HomeCooked is a facility that uses ingredients that contain peanuts, tree nuts, soy, dairy, gluten, corn, seafood and other allergens. If a camper has an allergy we will do everything we can to avoid the camper coming into contact with it, but cannot offer a 100% guarantee. Regrettably, we deter campers with gluten or dairy allergies from attending as projects often include ingredients with those allergens. We apologize for any inconvenience. During summer camp 2016 we will not use peanuts, tree nuts or seafood in our projects, but they may be found in our facility.

Photos/videos:

All photos/videos taken during camp remain the property of HomeCooked. They will be shared with campers (electronically) if desired, but may be used on HomeCooked's website, Facebook, Instagram or in future advertising or other materials.

Dinner Entrées:

Campers will be creating one ready-to-cook dinner entrée (serves 5) and dessert to bring home each night. These creations may not be fully cooked when they leave HomeCooked (containing raw ingredients) and will need to be refrigerated prior to final cooking at home. Please bring a cooler for transporting the meal if you will not be returning home immediately after camp. Entrée can be frozen and cooked at a later date if desired. Sides and sweets may not be able to be frozen.

Registration Fee:

$229/student per session. $10 off/a 2nd or 3rd child if a sibling registers for the same week. Cash or checks are our preferred payment method and should be made payable to HomeCooked. If cash or check is not possible, we accept MC/Visa/Discover/Amex.

Cancellation:

Should a registered camper not be able to attend the camp after the registration fee has been paid it will be returned in the form of a HomeCooked store credit. Alternatively the parent may find another child to fill the spot or stop by HomeCooked at the end of the camp session to pick up the food entrees (made by HomeCooked team member). There are no refunds or partial refunds.

Illness:

Campers are not permitted to attend camp if they are ill. This includes coughing, fever, etc. due to direct contact with ingredients during camp. Should a camper be unable to attend due to illness the parent may send another child (of appropriate age for the session) in place of the regular student or may pick up the food at/after 5pm (call to arrange this in advance). No refunds.

Partial Sessions:

If a session has not filled to capacity within 1 week of the start date a partial session (only 1-2 days instead of 3) may be a possibility, contact the shop. $79/day rate for any partial sessions.
