

~PRESS RELEASE~

P&B Textiles is pleased to announce that they have licensed Sandy Clough art for quilt fabric. Formerly with Red Rooster Fabrics, Sandy Clough is not only successful internationally as an artist in gift and home decor lines but also as a quilt fabric artist with over eleven collections. Using her artistic versatility and ability, Sandy paints her heart and vision in each collection.

Nancy Lee of the Fabric Dock in Wiggins, MS says, “Sandy Clough's collections are always favorites of our customers! Her attention to detail is absolutely amazing. Her collections always have a unique focus fabric and great coordinates. We love her collections because we can count on them to sell quickly as they appeal to all age groups. In addition, we find that not only quilters, but all sewers enjoy her designs for their projects.”

Ben Odessa VP of Sales at P&B stated, “As a top selling designer at Red Rooster over the past five years, we’re delighted that Sandy is now adding her art to P&B Textiles.”

Sandy Cloughs’ first collection for P&B, “Sweet Liberty”—a celebration of American country, will be premièred at the Spring Quilt Market in May in St. Louis, Missouri.