

Left: Singlet, $225, and pants, $289, by Obi. Above: Top, $165, and pants, $169, by Design Nation. Right: Sweater, $199, by Nineteen//46.

PICK AND CHOOSE

Stop in at Simply Wonderful Clothes' Birkenhead or Epsom boutique to peruse a hand-picked selection of designer clothing. The Auckland stores, owned by Kathryn Butler, stock a number of wearable brands, including Paper Shadow, Scope, Blackstone and Picadilly. Butler says her three picks for the new season are looks from Nineteen//46, Obi and Design Nation – a mix of casual and glamorous pieces suitable for any occasion.

simplywonderfulclothes.co.nz

All the good things

Located in a landmark 1920s building in Mount Albert, recently-opened boutique Good Thing stocks homewares alongside clothing, gifts and art. Founded by friends Sarah Twist and Karen Burge, the store sells pieces from local labels and artists, as well as international brands Elk and Wanderlust. "For a long time, we hoped that a cool shop would open in our neighbourhood, but after much discussion, we decided to do it ourselves," explains Burge. goodthing.co.nz

