Therefore the Lord himself will give you a sign: The virgin will conceive and give birth to a son, and will call him Immanuel.

- ISAIAH 7:14

For to us a child is born, to us a son is given, and the government will be on his shoulders. And he will be called Wonderful Counselor, Mighty God, Everlasting Father, Prince of Peace.

- ISAIAH 9:6

God sent the angel Gabriel to Nazareth, a town in Galilee, to a virgin pledged to be married to a man named Joseph, a descendant of David. The virgin's name was Mary.

- LUKE 1:26-27

4

The angel went to her and said, "Greetings, you who are highly favored! The Lord is with you."

- LUKE 1:28

5

Mary was greatly troubled at his words and wondered what kind of greeting this might be. But the angel said to her, "Do not be afraid, Mary; you have found favor with God."

- LUKE 1:30

You will conceive and give birth to a son, and you are to call him Jesus. He will be great and will be called the Son of the Most High. The Lord God will give him the throne of his father David, and he will reign over Jacob's descendants forever; his kingdom will never end.

- LUKE 1:31-33

"How will this be?" Mary asked. "The Holy Spirit will come on you, and the power of the Most High will overshadow you. So the holy one to be born will be called the Son of God."

- LUKE 1:34-35

8

And Mary said, "My soul glorifies the Lord and my spirit rejoices in God my Savior, for he has been mindful of the humble state of his servant."

- LUKE 1:46-48

9

In those days Caesar Augustus issued a decree that a census should be taken of the entire Roman world. And everyone went to their own town to register.

- LUKE 2:1-3

10

So Joseph also went up from the town of Nazareth in Galilee to Judea, to Bethlehem the town of David, because he belonged to the house and line of David. He went there to register with Mary, who was pledged to be married to him and was expecting a child.

- LUKE 2:4-5

11

While they were there, the time came for the baby to be born, and she gave birth to her firstborn, a son. She wrapped him in cloths and placed him in a manger, because there was no guest room available for them.

- LUKE 2:6-7

12

And there were shepherds living out in the fields nearby, keeping watch over their flocks at night. An angel of the Lord appeared to them, and the glory of the Lord shone around them, and they were terrified.

- LUKE 2:8-9

13

But the angel said to them, "Do not be afraid. I bring you good news that will cause great joy for all the people."

- LUKE 2:10

14

Today in the town of David a Savior has been born to you;
he is the Messiah,
the Lord.

- LUKE 2:11

15

This will be a sign to you:
You will find a baby wrapped in cloths and lying in a manger.

- LUKE 2:12

16

Suddenly a great company of the heavenly host appeared with the angel, praising God and saying, "Glory to God in the highest heaven, and on earth peace to those on whom his favor rests."

- LUKE 2:13-14

17

When the angels had left them and gone into heaven, the shepherds said to one another, "Let's go to Bethlehem and see this thing that has happened, which the Lord has told us about."

- LUKE 2:15

18

So they hurried off and found Mary and Joseph, and the baby, who was lying in the manger. When they had seen him, they spread the word concerning what had been told them about this child, and all who heard it were amazed at what the shepherds said to them.

- LUKE 2:16-18

19

But Mary treasured up all these things and pondered them in her heart.

- LUKE 2:19

20

The shepherds returned, glorifying and praising God for all the things they had heard and seen, which were just as they had been told.

- LUKE 2:20

21

All this took place to fulfill what the Lord had said through the prophet:
“The virgin will conceive and give birth to a son, and they will call him Immanuel”
(which means “God with us”).

- MATTHEW 1:22-23

22

Magi from the east came to Jerusalem and asked, “Where is the one who has been born king of the Jews?
We saw his star when it rose and have come to worship him.”

- MATTHEW 1:1-2

23

Herod asked them where the Messiah was to be born. “In Bethlehem in Judea,” they replied, “for this is what the prophet has written: “But you, Bethlehem, in the land of Judah, are by no means least among the rulers of Judah; for out of you will come a ruler who will shepherd my people Israel.”

- MATTHEW 2:3-6

24

- MATTHEW 2:9-10

25

On coming to the house, they saw the child with his mother Mary, and they bowed down and worshiped him. Then they opened their treasures and presented him with gifts of gold, frankincense and myrrh.

- MATTHEW 2:11
