VIC HARRADINE,
WINE CURRENT

The Padré Cabernet-Merlot 2022

All we have is our place and our name. These wines tell the story of our family.

DESCRIPTION

Before starting a winery with his three sons, Paul Speck Sr. was a 'Padré'. This wine is made in his honour. A luscious and full red too sinful to be served in church.

TASTING NOTES

- Heavenly aromas rise from the glass - red and black cherry/berry fruit, dark plum and grilled savoury herbs.
- Flavours of black bramble berry and juicy Bing cherry are joined on the mid-palate with lively tang and pizzazz.
- Medium-plus bodied with good balance and excellent mouthfeel and lingering finish.

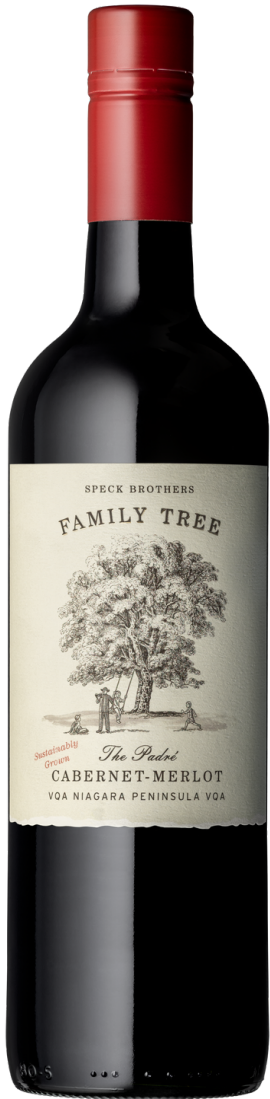

WINEMAKER'S NOTES

- 100% barrel aged for 16 months (a mixture of new and older oak).
- 60% French oak barrels and 40% American oak barrels.
- Sourced from the holy trinity of the Bordeaux blend - cabernet franc, cab sauvignon, merlot.

FOOD MATCHES

Prime rib, duck fat roasted potatoes, charred balsamic asparagus, horseradish cream.

PRICE $17.95
