Limited 2-Year Warranty

For Products Purchased in the U.S.A.

Cobra electronics warranty warrants to the original purchaser of the Cobra product that this product is free from defects in materials and workmanship for a period of two years from the date of purchase. The warranty extends to the original purchaser of the Cobra product and is not transferable. Cobra will, at its option, repair or replace this product if it is determined by Cobra that the product is defective in materials or workmanship. The warranty is void if the product is subjected to abuse, misuse, modification, accident, accident, or if the serial number has been altered or removed.

This warranty does not cover service or replacement parts required as a result of normal wear and tear, or the installation or removal of the product. Cobra is not responsible for any consequential damages resulting from the use of this product. Cobra's total liability under this warranty is limited to the repair or replacement of the product, at Cobra's option, and in no event shall Cobra be liable for any incidental or consequential damages. Some states do not allow the exclusion or limitation of incidental or consequential damages, so the above limitations may not apply.
