Waterhouse spoke to Variety about transitioning from the modeling world into music. She said, 'It was something that I desperately wanted to do.'

Suki said, 'For probably the last four years as I was putting out these singles, I guess I was testing my own courage and whether or not people would like it.'

'I was definitely slow, just putting out one a year is not the best way to run your music business... I've been writing it for a long time, but it's like the reality of it happening, I was unsure about. And then I just decided to do it.'
