

ILWTI TELETRAINING HIGHLIGHTS

- ILWTI is the only program providing dual certification in wound and lymphedema management!
 - Developed by licensed medical specialists for medical specialists
 - Curriculum integrated into Doctorate of Physical therapy program
- ILWTI Directors routinely publish, and speak nationally and internationally at vascular, lymphedema and wound congresses and are recognized experts
- Medical based training for management of complex patients with multiple co-morbidities
 - Rehab based training; skills applicable to any rehab patient with swelling
 - Teletraining sessions are pre-approved as "LIVE" continuing education, meeting the rigorous standards of Physical Therapy and Occupational Therapy State Boards
 - ILWTI is an approved Provider of CEUs through the American Occupational Therapy Association and curriculum is pre-approved for CEUs in all 50 states for Occupational Therapists
 - CLWT Certification course meets LANA requirements
- Course content pre-approved through the Federation of State Boards of Physical Therapy
- Course content pre-approved through the APTA or PT state boards in nearly all 50 states
 - Course is fully accessible to international students
- Includes hundreds of dollars of free wound management products and bandaging supplies
 - Tuition includes Certification exams
 - Includes lifetime access to the ILWTI Alumni Portal, including resource library, clinical tools, and hundreds of review videos of MLD and Bandaging techniques
 - Includes a full year access to ILWTI online courses and expert consultation
- Built in skills check points, small group sessions with content experts, proctored exams, real time lab submissions, and many other quality controls!