

Certified Compression Specialist Course Objectives: Updated 10/16/21

1. Upon completion of this course, the participant will be able to distinguish between compression contraindications and precautions.
2. Upon completion of this course, the participant will be able to demonstrate correct application of toe and finger bandaging.
3. Upon completion of this course, the participant will be able to demonstrate correct application of a no-slip, full leg, multi-layered, compression bandage system with foam, within 45mins.
4. Upon completion of this course, the participant will be able to demonstrate correct application of a no-slip, full arm, multi-layered, compression bandage system with foam, within 45mins.
5. Upon completion of this course, the participant will be able to create an effective compression bandaging system to help soften and remodel fibrotic skin and subcutaneous tissue.
6. Upon completion of this course, the participant will be able to evaluate engineering characteristics of compression garments that lead to effective lymphedema management.