

Certified Wound Therapist Course Objectives:

Updated 10/16/21

1. Upon completion of this course, the participant will be able to correctly identify wound etiologies based on clinical characteristics.
2. Upon completion of this course, the participant will be able to correctly classify wounds and edema.
3. Upon completion of this course, the participant will be able to choose the best topical treatments based on the clinical presentation of a wound.
4. Upon completion of this course, the participant will be able to identify barriers to wound healing.
5. Upon completion of this course, the participant will be able to sharply debride and correctly identify dermis, subcutaneous tissue, fascia, and muscle, using a scalpel, forceps and scissors on a simulated tissue model.
6. Upon completion of this course, the participant will be able to correctly demonstrate cross-hatching, shaving, silver nitrate and monofilament debridement.