COOL COLLAB
Twine & Twig and artist Sally King Benedict's necklaces ($350) are all handmade and handpainted.

ACCESSORIZE ARTFULLY

Chic Southern belles, including local artist Sally King Benedict and the Charleston-based sisters behind jewelry line Twine & Twig, Elizabeth Stafford White and Jacquelyn Stafford Buckner, teamed up to design and create a collection of necklaces ($350 each) that are as stunning as they are meaningful. Crafted from natural materials and boasting a handpainted pendant by King Benedict, none of the 100 pieces in the limited-edition collection are the same, as each feature Twine & Twig's signature suede strap and are signed and numbered to ensure a truly one-of-a-kind piece.
