

Melanin Magic! Here Are The Best Foundation Shades For Dark Skin Tones

We know our Black is beautiful! But that doesn't make it any easier to find the right shade to make our melanin pop — even in 2018. We've all had the nightmarish experience of thinking we look fly at home, then when we hit the streets we look hella ashy. Don't front!

“In my opinion, Black/Opal is excelling in the foundation market. The foundation deepens into the skin and gives a smooth surface – this way you do not need color corrector.”
