

7 Black Beauty Companies That Are Making an Impact in Hollywood

by ALANAH JOSEPH | Tue., Feb. 20, 2018 5:23 PM

BLACK/OPAL

Also launched in 1994, Black/Opal claims the #1 spot, as the first skin-care company made specifically for black women, prioritizing hyperpigmentation, oil control and shade matching. Since then, it's had a glowing presence in Hollywood, working on the sets of films such as Think Like a Man and The Best Man, as well as the red carpet.

For the 2018 SAG Awards, Mary J. Blige used the brand, applying the Invisible Oil Blocking Gel Primer, Total Coverage Concealing Foundation and the True Color Skin Perfecting Stick Foundation.