If you found yourself ogling the sleek, minimalist baubles on display at designer Misha Nonoo's fall/winter 2014 show, you weren't alone. Luckily, the collaboration with Danish jeweler Georg Jensen is available for sale—save the stunning '60s archival choker pictured at left—and we can't think of a better pick-me-up on National Splurge Day.

When it comes to bathing suits, more fabric need not mean less style. Celebrate today's summer solstice with Cover's long-sleeve maillot, a collaboration with photographer Gray Malin that features an arty aerial view of swimmers on Australia's famed Bondi Beach and boasts SPF 50 sun protection.

Friday, June 27

Fans of Jeff Koons' kooky creations, mark your calendars for the opening of the Whitney Museum's retrospective of the artist—the most comprehensive yet. Showcasing 120 works spanning more than three decades—including New Hoover Celebrity III's, 1980 (above)—it's bound to feature more balloon animals than a carnival.

THE ELLE MUST-DO CHECKLIST

Thursday, June 5

Who better than Pamela Skaist-Levy and Gela Nash-Taylor to offer business advice? The stylish duo founded their Juicy Couture empire with only $200 while working in a Los Angeles boutique. Stop by Bloomingdale's NYC flagship at 6 p.m. tonight and get your signed copy of their aptly titled tell-all, The Glitter Plan.

Wednesday, June 11

Raise a glass to Emmy-nominated actress and Bridesmaids star Rose Byrne, who is being honored by Max Mara today for both her on-screen talent and offscreen style with the brand's annual Women in Film Face of the Future Award.
