HIGH JUMP

For the first time ever, the world's best female divers join their male counterparts in the Red Bull Cliff Diving World Series. This month, they'll jump from 65-foot-high platforms in Ireland, Norway, and Portugal. Check them out, and then find the nearest pool to practice your most graceful cannonball. 2. CONE HEADS

Time to put down the fro-yo. July is National Ice Cream Month, which means you have every excuse to reach for the real, creamy deal.

3. MIRROR, MIRROR

These moto-inspired sunnies have screwless hinges—so no biggie if you toss them in your beach bag sans case. (Lindberg Eyewear sunglasses, $469; lindberg.com for stores)

4. LIP SERVICE

Bee-stung, rosebud, cupid's bow—the perfect pout takes many forms. Peruse the most iconic mouths in photography and art in curator Alice Harris' gorgeous new coffee table tome, Blow Me a Kiss. (powerHouse, July 1)

5. FUNNY GIRLS

No one makes us laugh like Melissa McCarthy. The fact that her new road-trip flick, Tammy, also stars Sandra Oh, Susan Sarandon, and Toni Collette? Sounds almost too good to be true. (July 2)

6. CIVIL SOCIETY

Fifty years ago this month, President Lyndon B. Johnson signed the Civil Rights Act, making it illegal to discriminate on the basis of race, color, religion, sex, or national origin. We may still have more to do, but we've come a long way.

7. PICTURE THIS

Cover's long-sleeve swim shirt and maillot are printed with photographer Gray Malin's lush scenes from St.-Tropez and Bondi Beach. Sun protection just got cooler. (Cover x Gray Malin top, $210, suit, $325; coverswim.com)

BOTTOMS UP

On the Fourth, who needs French champers when there's Napa bubbly in Chandon's limited-edition nautical bottle? For extra patriotism points, serve it on Jonathan Adler's matching tray. #Merica (American Summer sparkling wine, $22-$24; chandon.com; tray, $98; jonathanadler.com)
