

Intellectual Property Acknowledgement Form

Signature Required*

The information below is meant to help you better understand intellectual property as it relates to your custom developments with KenDor Textiles Limited (hereinafter referred to as KenDor). The information below does not constitute legal advice. If you have questions about intellectual property laws or whether or not you have sufficient rights to a particular design to use it on a custom development with KenDor, you should consult with an attorney.

KenDor cannot knowingly produce, sell or distribute items that infringe the intellectual property rights (including copyright, trademark and publicity rights) of a third party. This means that all artwork submitted for custom developments needs to be 100% your own design. This applies to not only your design for a product, but also the product name, the product description, and the colour names you select.

- You must have clear documented permission to use a person's name, likeness, trademark, design or image.
- You are ultimately responsible for ensuring that you hold all necessary intellectual property rights to submit a design for a custom development with KenDor.
- For information about copyright law in Canada, please visit the Canadian Intellectual Property Office's website and guide.
- For information about copyright law in the United States, please visit the United States Copyright Office's website and FAQ's.

Intellectual property acknowledgement statement:

I, the undersigned:

1. Have read and agree that I hold all necessary intellectual property rights to the artwork submitted.
2. Agree that the statement above clearly describes the terms of intellectual property as it relates to my custom development and that my order may not be approved if containing any likeness in description, name, colour or design from a third party.

To be completed by the person legally responsible:

Company Name:

Printed Name:

Signature:

Title:

Date:
