

"Clay Head"

DESCRIPTION

We are proud to represent one of the finest clay sculptors in the world: Ben Apollo. Ben Apollo is entirely self-taught, focusing his themes primarily on the Masaai tribe. His work demands astounding attention to detail, from the hundreds of beads on one necklace, to the fibers of hair on a head. "Clay Head" is available in two sizes and multiple colors. Each piece is hand signed by Ben Apollo himself. "Clay Head" makes a memorable gift for your loved one's home or office, as this piece is hand crafted by one of the finest clay artists in the world.

The Maasai Tribe is an indigenous group of semi-nomadic people in Kenya and northern Tanzania. Due to their distinctive customs and dress and residence near the many national game parks and reserves of East Africa, they are among the most well-known tribes—a near constant presence.

Each piece is made out of natural African clay and is free from any dyes, stains, or varnishes.
