

2024
ORDERS DUE:
Mar 11

FIND YOUR PERFECT STONE FRUIT TREE

Peaches

Peaches are self-pollinating, but having more than one same or adjacent bloom-time tree will result in a much higher yield of fruit!

Early Spring Bloom

Redhaven

Early-Mid Spring Bloom

Contender
Elberta

Mid Spring Bloom

Glohaven

Mid-Late Spring Bloom

Bonfire
Loring
Reliance

SHOP NOW

Pears

Most pears must be pollinated by the same or adjacent bloom time and same variety of pear tree: European/European, Asian/Asian.

European

Luscious

Bartlett
Moonglow
Red Bartlett

D'Anjou
Flemish
Summercrisp

SHOP NOW

Asian

Shinseiki*

Reddy Robin*
Tawara*
Twentieth Century

Kikusui*

Cherries

Most cherries must be pollinated by another variety with the same or adjacent bloom time.

Sweet Cherry Pie*
White Gold*

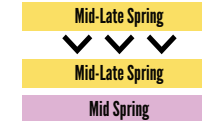

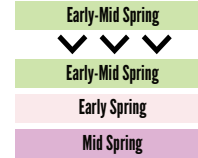

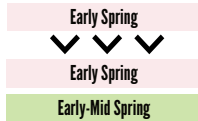

Bing
Black York
Chelan
Rainier
Regina

Montmorency*
North Star*
Sam

SHOP NOW

Pollinator Partners

NOTE: Tree varieties marked with an asterisk () are self-fertile, but having more than one same or adjacent bloom-time tree will result in a much higher yield of fruit.

2024
ORDERS DUE:
Mar 11

FIND YOUR PERFECT BLUEBERRY BUSH

June/Early July Harvest

Duke
Earliblue
Patriot
Reka
Sweetheart

Mid July Harvest

Blue Jay
Blueray
Chandler

Late July/Early August Harvest

Bluecrop
Northland

Mid August Harvest

Jersey

Double Harvest Early/Mid & Late

Berries Galore*
Perpetua

Highbush

4-7 ft

Half-Highbush

2-4 ft

Lowbush

Up to 2 ft

BerryBux
Pink Icing

Polaris

SHOP NOW

Lowbush
Midnight Cascade
Peach Sorbet
Sapphire Cascade

Jelly Bean

Burgundy

Mackey's
Where the Home Grows

NOTE: Blueberries are self-pollinating, but having more than one same or adjacent bloom time bush will result in a much higher yield of fruit.

*Berries Galore has three different varieties on one bush - no pollinating partner needed!

