THIERRY ATLAN:

For the past 35 years, Master French Chocolatier Thierry Atlan has been working in the chocolate industry, perfecting his knowledge to provide customers with authentic and flavorful chocolates and macarons. In 1997, Thierry became Meilleur Ouvrier de France Chocolatier, one of the most prestigious culinary titles, and has since used his title to share his enthusiasm for fine chocolate in the world.

In 2015, he created the Thierry Atlan brand with his daughter, Julie, who shares his passion for excellence and French savoir-faire.

OUR COMMITMENT:

We make fresh macarons and chocolates daily, using French techniques and adapting to the American palate. Our goal is to provide authentic flavors of what French macarons and chocolates taste like. Starting from scratch, we grind our almonds to make fresh almond flour for our macarons and we make our ganaches and jams for both our chocolates and macarons. We do not use any preservatives in our production process.

LOCAL:

We pride ourselves in making fresh products every day in our kitchen in New Jersey. We also source local ingredients and packaging as much as possible to reduce our carbon footprint.
