

Common Grant Application

The San Diego Common Grant Application was designed by San Diego Grantmakers' members and nonprofit community leaders to facilitate a simpler and more efficient grantseeking and grantmaking process. The intent is to help our nonprofit partners invest time on developing relationships with grantmakers and not on formatting. The intent is not to encourage mass submissions of proposals. It is important that each submission demonstrate the strategic link between your proposal and the mission of the grantmaker to whom you are applying.

Before you fill out the Common Grant Application, be sure to research the individual foundations you plan to submit a proposal to! While the foundations and corporations listed accept the San Diego Common Grant Application, each has different guidelines and priorities, many require a first step or "Letter of Intent" (LOI) prior to submitting a proposal. In addition, foundations have different deadlines and timetables. Any funder that has agreed to accept this form may request additional information at any stage in the proposal process.

1. Application: submit proposal directly to foundation and/or corporation.
2. Additional information: many of the participating foundations and corporations have additional steps or require additional information. Before submitting a proposal, please review the respective organization's grant requirements.
