Garden Party
Spectacularly juicy notes (bergamot, hyacinth, tangerine) plus a host of rich hydrators like jojoba, shea butter, and aloe make Nest Body Creams, $50 each, my go-to for drab winter skin.

Task Master
Earth Tu Face Skin Stick Face+Lips+Body, $38, heals with vetiver and beeswax and prevents scars with geranium. Simply great.

A FINE LINE
Consider Laura Mercier's Artist Luxe Liquid Liner, $125, a calligraphy pen for eyes. (It's that good.)

Straight Flush
Brush Almay's Smart Shade Powder Blush in Pink (a universally flattering rose shade), $12, on your apples and a tad on the bridge of nose for a fresh-from-the-slopes glow, stat.

LOVE IT, NEED IT

Forget the minibar. When I check in to a fab hotel or nab a seat at the front of a transatlantic flight, it's all about the beauty loot—the tiny, deliriously covetable tubes of salves. Best reasons to book now: Conrad Hotels' pick-your-own-amenities program, featuring Tara Smith Vegan, Shanghai Tang, and Aromatherapy Associates wares; InterContinental Hotels' newly introduced Agraria soaps and lotions; and Singapore Airlines' dopp kit filled with Kiehl's classic crowd-pleasers. Stash in bag, ask for more. I give you permission.

The Glitterati
Sumptuous when dabbed on top of a deep wine lip stain (just in the center, please) or worn solo: Givenchy's twinkling Gelée d'Interdit Gloss Balm in Enchanted Silver, $28.

DIVINE BATH BOOSTER ... MOR'S YUMMY NEROLI CLEMENTINE

SALT & SUGAR BODY SCRUB, $22.

STRAND SAVER
There's too much goodness in Tammy Fender's Beautifying Hair Serum, $65, to list. All you need to know: It makes hair glossy, strong, and gorgeous.
