

STEVE JOBS:
SECRET PHILANTHROPIST?

I DON'T FEEL TARDY!
TIMELY ADVICE for the NON-PUNCTUAL

SPECIAL HOLIDAY ISSUE

TOWN & COUNTRY

DECEMBER 2011

NAUGHTY, NOT NICE

*A Gallery of Ill-Gotten Gains,
Shameful Fortunes, and Greedy Grinches*

KEITH
RICHARDS' ANGELS

The Rock Solid Life of a Model American Family

PLUS

T&C CELEBRATES
THE SEASON

- » THE COMPLETE GIFT GUIDE
- » THE GREATEST HOLIDAY FEAST
- » THE ULTIMATE SKI ESCAPES

STYLE & SPY

CHARITABLE GIVING

Spreading the Wealth

They say it's better to give than to receive. That may be up for debate, but there is a certain pride in finding gifts that combine the joy of giving with the higher purpose of giving back.

1 Milk and Bookies

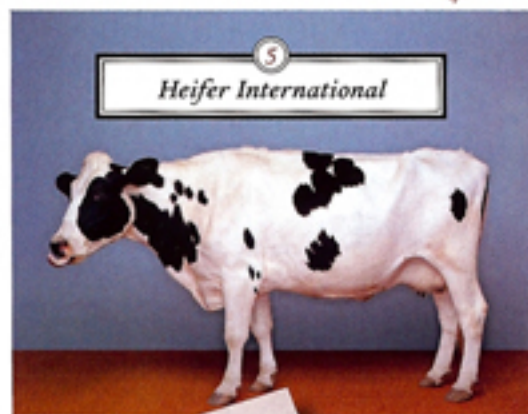

2 Iomoi

3 Converse

4 Tory Burch

5 Heifer International

8 UNICEF

6 God's Love We Deliver

7 UNICEF

9 Same Sky

10 FEED

ALL GOOD THINGS 1. The Sweet Pete book ($16; proceeds benefit a nationwide literacy initiative), milkandbookies.org. 2. Iomoi note cards ($78 for 20; David Sheldrick Wildlife Trust), shopiomoi.com. 3. Converse All Star sneakers ($50; Global Fund for AIDS in Africa), converse.com. 4. Tory Burch Sunflower scarf ($125; Tory Burch Foundation for Women), toryburch.com. 5. Heifer International heifer ($500 or $50/share; Heifer International), heifer.org. 6. Chuck's Famous Brownies ($28-$75; God's Love We Deliver), glwd.com. 7. Tiger sketchbook and pencil set ($17; UNICEF), unicefusa.org/shop. 8. World floor puzzle ($17; UNICEF), unicefusa.org/shop. 9. Same Sky bracelets ($45-$75; proceeds benefit HIV-positive women in Africa), samesky.com. 10. Tammy Fender beauty products with FEED travel bag ($95; World Food Program), tammyfender.com.