Verse 1

When the condemnation comes
When the enemy attacks
When the accusations gather like a storm
I remember what You've done
You remind me who I am
And I claim the victory Your blood has won

Chorus

Oh, You are my righteousness
You rush to my defense
You are my advocate
How You fight for me and
Oh, You've never failed me yet
Your promises are yes
You are my advocate
How You fight for me, Lord

Verse 2

No, I won't accept defeat
At the hands of guilt and shame
Or these burdens that I've carried far too long
All of Satan's empty threats
Have been conquered by the cross
You declare me innocent before the throne
And I claim the victory Your blood has won
