

Sparta® Spectrum® Cutting Board Brushes

Prevent Cross-Contamination

Cross-contamination is one of the most common causes of food-related illnesses. Having color-coded tools as part of an effective HACCP plan can help foodservice establishments protect their customers from harmful cross-contact and bacteria.

Ensure clean and sanitary cutting boards with San Jamar's line of Sparta Spectrum Cutting Board Brushes. Having separate color-coded cutting boards and brushes is an important step in preventing cross-contamination in food prep environments, and the Sparta Spectrum brushes' color-coded bristles easily signify tasks or work zones.
