

MARLBOROUGH
NEW ZEALAND

2012 Marlborough Select Riesling Tasting Notes

VINTAGE CONDITIONS

Marlborough, at the top of New Zealand's South Island, is one of the world's premier cool climate viticultural regions. The area has relatively young riverbed soils that are generally stony, well drained and silty, though significant variation does occur. Marlborough's growing season is generally characterised by warm, sunny days and cool nights resulting in fruit with good natural acidity and clean, fresh flavours. Heat summation data showed the 2011-12 growing season to be the coolest since 1996-97. Weather at flowering for was generally cool and wet, meaning generally poor fruit set and naturally low yields. However, these cooler conditions promoted controlled flavour development and acid retention, allowing us to hang the fruit out to develop the flavours and extract we desired. This is a single estate wine.

HARVEST DATE

15th April 2012

WINEMAKING

A significant amount of work is done in the vineyards that produce grapes for all of Framingham's Rieslings. Extensive crop thinning and a degree of leaf plucking are practised (when necessary), giving low yields of grapes that have had reasonably good exposure to sunlight. Grapes for 2012 Framingham Select Riesling were harvested by hand from the "front" Riesling block on the Estate that surrounds the Framingham winery. These grapes, selected on the basis of their appearance, had characteristic "green - gold" colour and no botrytis influence. Whole bunches were loaded into the press and the gently extracted juice, after clarification, was fermented until the sugar/acid/alcohol balance was deemed optimal. The wine was chilled and sulphured early on lees to stop re-fermentation. No cold stabilisation was employed; only gentle clarification and bottling under screwcap to preserve freshness, flavour and integrity.

Bright, pale gold.

Delicate aromatics reminiscent of raspberry, mandarin, cream and beeswax, with some gentle stone-like mineral tones.

ASSESSMENT

The Riesling grape is perhaps the most versatile of all, and can be interpreted in a number of different styles around the world from bone-dry to lusciously sweet. The German Spätlese style is the inspiration for Framingham Select Riesling. Marlborough's combination of soil and cool climate provides regionally distinctive, delicate Riesling flavours which develop slowly during the growing season, as well as a good acid backbone, which is essential to this style. This is a relatively limited production wine, and, although approachable on release, is a suitable candidate for long-term ageing in the cellar for those who enjoy the more complex flavours of bottle aged Riesling.
