Our Values

How we approach our food and service matters, but it's the "why" that ultimately drives us: bringing people together, creating camaraderie, and building strong, longlasting relationships.

Did we say "hearty"?

It's filling. It's delectable. It's made from scratch with heart and soul to spare.

Hassle-free service

Our owner, Andy? He's great. He takes the work off your plate so you can keep your focus on what counts: the success of your project.

Calgary to our core

Gravity has been a staple of the YYC scene for more than a decade now. We know Calgary and area like the back of our hand because this city isn't just where we work. It's who we are.

Sustainable and local

We make every effort to use local suppliers and products. Our setting is almost entirely compostable and recyclable. We clean up real good and only use eco-friendly products – because at the end of the day, that's the stuff that really matters.
