LEAVE IT TO ME!

“Should we go for a drive?” asks mom. “Or stay home and play?”

“That depends,” says dad. “What’s the weather today?”

“Hold on. Just a sec. Here’s my phone. I’ll check.”

Says Sophie,

“Don’t worry. Don’t bother. Just leave it to me.”

“It’s sunny. It’s perfect. Let’s go to the sea!”

“Let’s invite friends,” says mom.
“Maybe the Lees?”

“Great,” says dad.
“Let’s text them and
ask if they’re free.”

“Don’t worry. Don’t bother.
Just leave it to me.”

“They’re coming with us!
Hooray! Yippee!”

Says mom, "Poor little baby is tired and weepy.
I'll look for a song to make him sleepy."

Says Sophie, "Don't worry. Don't bother. Just leave it to me."

"Look at him now!"

“I think we’re lost. Here’s the address. I’ll put it in the GPS.”

“Don’t worry. Don’t bother. Don’t you see?
There’s a sign right there — up on that tree!”

“Look at this app.
The dogs are so real.
You pet them and feed them
and teach them to heel.”

“No thanks. Don’t bother.
Keep it. It’s yours.”

“I prefer real ones to play with outdoors.”

“Want to play tic tac toe? You be X and I’ll be O.
Hmmm. It’s hard to see the screen clearly though.”

“Don’t worry. Don’t bother.
Just leave it to me.”

“We just need some dirt and a twig from a tree.”

“Do ants have six legs?
Or eight?
Do you know?”

“I’m not really sure.
I can find out, though.”

“Don’t worry.
Don’t bother.

“They have six legs. There is no doubt!”

this sunset would be.”

“Don’t worry. Don’t bother.
Just watch it with me.”
