Flying Colors

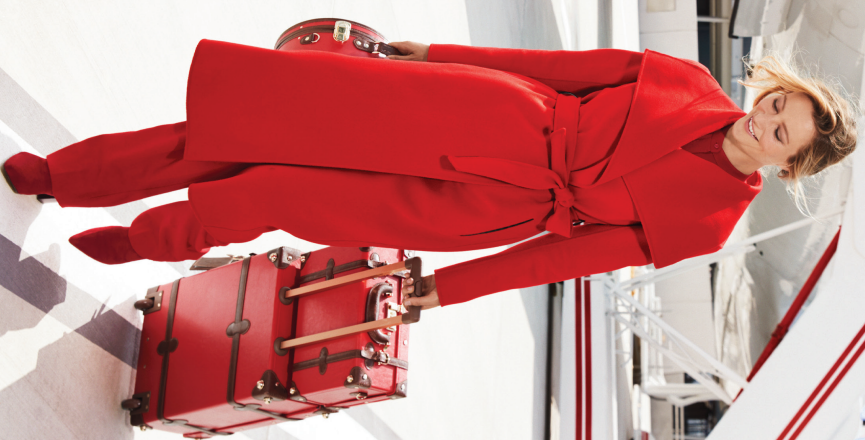

Brave the chill brilliantly this season with first-class monochromatic match-ups: statement-making coats in an array of vibrant shades, flattering silhouettes, and feel-good fabrics paired with equally fabulous boots.

WINTER BLUES

A head-to-toe look in one standout hue is not only effortless, it's polished, but also has a slimming and elongating effect. His tips benefit—prints or solids of any shade—a smart upgrade: belted coat, blouse and skirt, Vince, $795; $345; and $425. Knee-high boots, Nine West, $189. Hat, Lake of Color, dog coat, Oliver Thomas.

CARDINAL RULES

A shawl collar may be traditional, but a dynamic shade makes this sophisticated top or modern and eye-catching—especially when coupled with suede booties in a slightly deeper crimson. Belled coat, Madgag, $750. Shirt and pants, Vince, $275 and $325. Boots, Marc Fisher, $179. Hatbox and suitcases, Steamline Luggage.

SEA THE LIGHT

Continue eating your waters in this spectacular car coat in an unexpected turquoise. Because sometimes matchy-matchy can be a bit much, buttery boots in muted olive provide chic contrast. Shearling coat, Aerie Shade New York, $2,299. Cashmere crewneck, Talbots, $159. Shirt, J. Jill, $99. Knee-high boots, Zara, $199. Mini top-handle bag, Botolph.
