Episode 1: ARGENTINA PART 1 - BUENO AIRES

In the first episode of "Forbidding No More 2," host Alberto visits Buenos Aires of Argentina. Known as the "Little Paris in South America" the capital is also the origin of Argentine Tango. Join Alberto as he dances Tango and watches a football game while sharing a maté with the locals!

Episode 2: ARGENTINA PART 2 – NORTHWEST

Host Alberto bids farewell to Buenos Aires and makes his way to the northwest plateau of Argentina where he will immerse himself in the ancient Inca culture, and the natural landscape formed by the special terrain and climate.

Episode 3: JORDAN PART 1

Connecting the deserts to the seas, the east to the west, the Hashemite Kingdom of Jordan is a beautiful country of contrasts and mystery! Join Ayden Sng on "Forbidding No More 2", as we explore this desert country rich in history and culture, while taking in the magnificent natural landscape!

Episode 4: JORDAN PART 2

In this episode of "Forbidding No More 2" host Ayden Sng continues on his journey through Jordan as he travels down south, passing through old city, deserts and seas, experiencing the ever-changing landscape of this mysterious kingdom.

Episode 5: ETHIOPIA PART 1

Africa is often seen as an unlikely travel destination to most. Having existed for at least 2,000 years, Ethiopia is one of the continent's oldest independent countries with magnificent historical sights to offer. Join Jinglun, the host of "Forbidden No More 2" as he explores the "Land of Origins".

Episode 6: ETHIOPIA PART 2

As Jinglun, the host of "Forbidden No More 2", continues his journey in Ethiopia, he travels further out of the capital Addis Ababa by plane. As a transport hub, the city is a gateway to popular destinations such as the rock-hewn churches, one of the origins of the River Nile, and a royal city.

Episode 7: FAROE ISLANDS

Will Ayden succeed in braving the extreme Faroese weather and rough sea, to meet the lovable Puffins? In this land of contrasts, the Viking rowing sport, food culture and ancient architecture are well preserved, coexisting with modern marvel in engineering – the world's first undersea roundabout.

Episode 8: COLOMBIA PART 1 – MEDELLIN

Colombia is located at the northernmost tip of South America, and Medellin, the country's second largest city, was once the "dark city" where drug lords gathered; and now it's evolved into one of the world's most livable cities. What kind of experience is awaiting host Alberto?

Episode 9: COLOMBIA PART 2 - AMAZON JUNGLE

After bidding farewell to the modernization of Medellin, Alberto advances to the Amazon jungle! This magical land not only provides a habitat and a source of life for the aborigines, but also breeds and nurtures other precious life species. What kind of adventures and cultural activities await Alberto?

Episode 10: RWANDA PART 1

"Forbidding No More 2" continues its journey in Africa as the host Jinglun sets off to Rwanda in the east. The country is perhaps most known for the horrific genocide of 1994, but it has since come a long way and is now emerging as a popular tourist destination in the continent.

Episode 11: RWANDA PART 2

After experiencing the bustling city life the capital Kigali has to offer, Jinglun, the host of "Forbidden No More 2", travels upcountry to discover the natural landscapes and wildlife of Rwanda. What exciting adventures and breathtaking sights await us in the safari, lake and mountains?

Episode 12: MONGOLIA PART 1

Alberto set off to Mongolia, the second largest inland country in the world. In the capital Ulaanbaatar, he witnessed the wealth gap behind the prosperity. Hosted by a yurt herdsman family, he experienced their warm hospitality culture and met a champion wrestler from whom he learned wrestling.

Episode 13: MONGOLIA PART 2

Alberto continues his adventure to Olgii, the west end of Mongolia. He hikes to the Altai Tavan Bogd National Park in search of hidden spots. He encounters the Kazakh tribe's annual event, the Eagle Festival, and was awed by the traditional culture of falconry that has lasted thousands of years.
