Soul Doctor

A rational psychiatrist meets a woman with Dissociative Identity Disorder, but soon discovers it is a case of multiple possessions. Can he reconcile with his professional beliefs and help her?

Dr Hau Zecong meets Jingyao whom he diagnosed as suffering from a very special case of Dissociative Identity Disorder (DID). Unknown to him, Jingyao is not suffering from DID but her multiple personalities is due to the possession of spirits who needed her help to fulfil their final wishes. Dr Hau decides to help Jingyao when he discovers she is the sister of his late girlfriend. Their situation takes a hilarious turn when Jingyao realizes the spirit of Dr Hau's dead mother is still lingering in his house, and she moves in to help resolve her last wishes much to the old lady's chagrin. Jingyao also stumbles on the truth behind her sister's death, and with Dr Hau's help, that may hold the key to her finally being able to shake off her 'special ability'.
