When Titans Clash S2: The New World Order

China-US rivalry continues to dominate global headlines, and it's become ever more urgent in the context of Ukraine. China-Europe relations are now at its worst in the past four decades. Across Asia; India, Japan and South Korea are increasing military spending. In Southeast Asia, countries eye the South China Sea nervously, as war ships continue to sail here from all the major powers. As all of this is unfolding, China is warning that the US Indo-Pacific Plan may cause a "Ukraine style tragedy."

Narrator: Anthony Morse

中美之间的竞争继续占据全球头条新闻的主导地位，在乌克兰的情况下，这种竞争变得更加紧迫。中欧关系目前处于过去四十年来最糟糕的时期。亚洲各地；印度、日本和韩国正在增加军事开支。在东南亚，各国都在紧张地注视着南中国海，因为所有大国的战舰仍在航行。随着这一切的展开，中国警告称，美国的印度洋-太平洋计划可能导致“乌克兰式悲剧”。

Episode 1 – Is The US Indo-Pacific Strategy The New NATO?

As the Ukraine crisis unfolds, China accuses the US of creating an Indo-Pacific version of NATO, and warns of a “Ukraine style tragedy” for Asia. On the other hand, countries like Japan, Philippines, India, Australia and South Korea, seek closer ties to the US as concerns emerge over China’s actions. Could Asia witness a war in the years ahead?

Episode 2 – Could China And India Go To War?

In 2020, a clash on the India-China border resulted in fatalities for both armies. In March 2022, the Indian foreign minister said ties with China cannot be normal as long as there is a large deployment of troops along the disputed border. Many believe this is a potential flashpoint. Ongoing political upheaval in Nepal, Sri Lanka and Pakistan, further contributes to tension between India and China.

Episode 3 – The Taiwan (Japan & South Korea) Contingency

“Ukraine today, Taiwan tomorrow”- that is a hot topic of debate in Taiwan. While some groups prepare for war, others in Taiwan urge closer engagement with China to prevent a tragedy. As senior US officials visit Taiwan, China issues stern warnings and sends fighter jets into Taiwan’s air defense zone. With increased tensions, Japan and South Korea raise military spending. What are the possibilities of war in East Asia?
