

Pillow Talk - January Jubilee

Welcome to 2021! We made it!

January finds us hitting the ground running with no time to lose. It also brings great news!

By the beginning of February, we are moving to a much roomier location just down the street. Stay-tuned to our site and social media pages for our updated contact information. We will greatly appreciate your patience during the transition!

While we can't wait to have more room to work (hooray for an actual office space!), this shop will also house our brand new insert fluffing machine. And yes, that is the technical term. But what does this mean? *Drum roll please* We will be the only local shop in the valley printing all pillow covers on demand and making our own inserts!

It's one of our 2021 goals to be more transparent, so our customers know exactly what quality they're getting and where their products are made!

Speaking of authenticity, we're calling all artists, designers, influencers, and poets! If you know anyone we should be collaborating with this year, we want to meet them (or you!). Send us a line and let's get creative!

Here's to great beginnings!

Didn't quite get all your shopping in for Christmas? Looking to stock up early on gifts for this year? This is your moment!

While we can't say exactly what'll be featured or what the discount will be (where's the fun in that?!), we can say you don't want to miss this event!

Mark your calendars & set your alarms:

- Saturday, January 9th @ 8:30 AM (MST)
