Eclectic Throw Pillow Covers

Pillow Talk - July Updates

Summer is upon us! Does that foretell a staycation or vacation in your future? Either way, we've been busy bees designing (with our very own printer!) plenty of fun creations for everyone and every purpose.

We are so pleased to sew and print in-house now! This setup allows us to create custom designs on-demand, which means no delays from external sources during a pandemic. Our pillows are made with even more local love at the same affordable price, and with an even higher quality fabric than before. The weave is tighter, meaning any hi-resolution photos you send in will be printed without grain! This has made an incredible difference for our latest Graduation pillow designs.

Speaking of new collections, we have an announcement to make! Our first ever baby line of pillows will be officially featured next month. Stay tuned to our blog for a sneak peek coming soon!

But, in order to make room, our entire site and pillow collections are being revamped right now. As they say, out with the old, in with the new! Keep reading to find out how this late spring clean benefits you in a big way!

Unik-ly yours,

Quarantine Creations

Graduation season might have been skipped, but it's not too late to celebrate. Send a graduate you love a meaningful gift in honor of their accomplishments! Custom graduation pillows can feature handwritten letters, a picture of the grad, an inspirational quote, or whatever your heart desires.

Memory pillows are a great way to remember a loved one. Whether it's a t-shirt they used to wear or a saying they used often, keep the memory of them alive in the most comforting way.

As mentioned, our baby line comes out next month and we cannot wait for you all to ooh and ahh over the collection! Stay tuned!
