Eclectic Throw Pillow Covers

Pillow Talk - May Days

Are your May plans just as busy as ours?!

Now that the world is slowly opening again, everyone we know is catching up on all the life missed. From graduations, baby showers, bridal celebrations, weddings, and even Mother's Day this weekend, we've got full calendars and we aren't complaining!

On the business side, thanks to our new heat press we can now work triple time on customer orders! This baby is a workhorse. In case you're curious, our heat press uses sublimation to turn ink into gas which then fuses into the fibers of our pillow covers. Unlike the print screen process which can eventually wear or wash out, sublimation ensures a timeless design!

We hope you all have a wonderful month of May as well as a deservedly long Memorial Day weekend!

Unik-ly yours,
The Gals
