

Pillow Talk - November News

Did you hear? Our humble little shop was the talk of the town on Phoenix Magazine earlier this week. We couldn't be more flattered and grateful!

Speaking of gratitude, have we told you lately that we love you? No, seriously. You, our lovely customers, make what we do SO worth it, even when things get hard!

We are so thankful to have weathered the storms of 2020. Grace and gumption propelled us forward despite the economic halt, and now, looking back, gratitude overwhelms us when we truly begin to count our blessings.

No matter how bleak our circumstances, faith anchors us for the long haul. It's in those moments we notice those who choose to stand by us; we see new ways to improve that we might not have seen before; we learn to find happiness in the seemingly insignificant but positive aspects of our days.

After all, it really is the simple, small things that keep us going, don't you think?

So what about you? What are you most ardently thankful for this year? Despite all that didn't go right, according to your best laid plans, what worked out for the better anyhow? What valuable lessons have you learned?

As you celebrate Thanksgiving, we pray love, joy, and peace wrap around you and your loved ones a little extra tighter this year.

Uniik-ly yours,
The Gals
