Pillow Talk - September Sentiments

September has got to be the most neglected of months. Technically, summer lasts until the 23rd, but terrible things like school and "normal" jobs decide to rudely cut the sunny season short. So then we find ourselves in a bit of a limbo--unsure if we should be firing up the grill and munching watermelon or if we need to just give in and drain down that first pumpkin spice latte (affectionately known as a #PSL). Likewise, our homes often feel the confused strain of transition too. Fall décor doesn't quite feel right yet, but summer now seems a faded memory. What's a design-savvy homeowner to do?! Well, if De-Stress September isn't already a thing, we're coining it. Soon enough the air will chill and you and your loved ones will be warming up with PSL's aplenty. But until then, save yourself from feeling too frazzled and unprepared to actually enjoy the festivities. Detox and recompose while we're in the in-between. Start planning your presentation and, dare we say it, Christmas presents, now with our layaway program. While you're at it, and before you start panicking about holiday gifts, be sure to follow us on Instagram @uniikpillows to enter our weekly giveaway! Read on further below for our design tips, new products (big hint: bath curtains!), upcoming events, and offers to keep you within your spending limit this holiday season. We're regular people with budgets too--subscribe to this newsletter for a monthly featured sale and coupon code! See? You and your home will both be breathing easier when the fresh air arrives, right on the heels of your house guests.

Fall-ing Forward

Do you have to include orange in your fall décor? The answer is simply and absolutely: nope! Of course, the rich, burnt orange of changing leaves is always welcome. But we're here to tell you that neutral tones and autumn are soulmates, too. White or beige pumpkins and gourds make for lovely table embellishments, along with sage green foliage or rustic twigs. Set the mantle or countertops with sugar cookie scented candles. Lastly, find any excuse to use twine! Tie up the silverware, wrap baked goods for the neighbors, or let the kids make a fun fall-themed banner! Elegance doesn't have to mean expensive, we promise. What are some new, or tried and true, home décor you'd like to show off? Share it with us!

Cleanup In Aisle Fall

Eek! Company is coming! But like we said, this year, you don't have to panic. For your own sake, do some pre-autumn cleaning to spiff up your family room over the next few weeks. As the busyness of life and the hustle of the holidays approaches, make the time now to clear out cluttered closets. Organize toys, pantries, storage, and so forth; put up or let go of whatever you're tired of looking at or keeping around; consider donating a box of home goods and food items. You don't need a lot of dust-collecting décor (unless that's your thing, then we fully support you). Open spaces and cute, comfortable throw pillows will make all the difference during pumpkin carving parties, football games, and fireplace feels this fall! What are you looking forward to the most?
