

V-SERIES

MOTORIZED ZONE VALVES

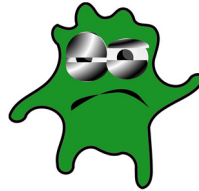

Keeps you in your comfort zone

Heat and corrosion are a zone valve's sworn enemies. The best way to fend off these menaces is through rock solid construction, using the most durable materials available. That's why we build our valves with high-quality aluminum and stainless steel. And because we back them up with a 3-Year Limited Warranty, Valemo products are pound for pound and dollar for dollar the finest zone valves on the market today.

Put me to work for you today!

2-way & 3-way Motorized Zone Valves

Our zone valves are designed to fit virtually any fan coil unit, baseboard or other closed-loop hydronic or geothermal system. They are a perfect replacement option for brand names like Honeywell, Erie, TACO, Caleffi and others. .

- 3-Year Limited Warranty
- Durable aluminum cover, stainless steel base, metal gears
- Tested over 100,000 cycles for flawless operation
- Removable powerhead - no need to drain system or break plumbing connections
- Compact design for easy installation
- Forged brass body: Sweat or NPT, 1/2", 3/4", 1" & 1-1/4"
- 24, 120 or 230 Volts AC

Honeywell-style Replacement Head

The AD1S is a replacement powerhead for Honeywell's V8043 and V8044 24 volt, normally closed zone valve. This powerhead is for use with Honeywell's new style valve bodies (series 6, removable head) only, and it includes the motor, housing, and 2 mounting screws. 3 Year Limited Warranty.

