

Bible Study Guide for Exodus 1-4

Day 1 – Review of Genesis

1. To review our study of Genesis, answer at least one of the following questions:
 - a. Name one person in the book of Genesis that particularly impressed you. What lesson did you learn from his/her story?

 - b. What did you learn about the nature of man from Genesis?

 - c. What aspects of the character of God did you see displayed in Genesis?

2. “All Scripture is inspired by God and profitable for teaching, for reproof, for correction, for training in righteousness; that the man of God may be adequate, equipped for every good work.” Have you learned something from the study of Genesis that you feel God will continue to use in your life? Make a brief statement and be ready to share with your group.

Day 2 – Overview of Exodus 1-4

1. While Genesis recorded the lives of many individuals, the book of Exodus is the record of one man, Moses, and the nation of Israel. We will follow the people of Israel from bondage in Egypt to deliverance by God and their subsequent wanderings in the wilderness. We will also see God’s love, faithfulness and holiness. Read Exodus 1 through 4. Record your initial observations of Moses.

2. For a more detailed study of Moses, answer the following questions.
 - a. How was Moses set apart for the task God had for him to do? Exodus 2:2; Acts 7:20-22

 - b. What was Moses’ response to his early years in Pharaoh’s house? Hebrews 11:24-26

 - c. When God had chosen Moses to be His spokesman, what was Moses’ view of his abilities? Exodus 4:10 and 6:30.
