

OLD FRAME SERIES

Conley's Cold Frame Series represent some of the strongest, most durable and economical cold frames on the market today.

These structures have been employed throughout the world and can be used in many different growing conditions.

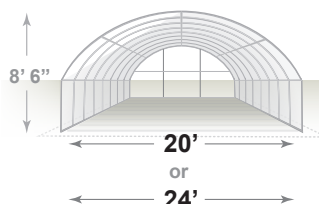

Conley's CF 1000 Ground to Ground

Main Features:

- Two-piece arch that laps and bolts together
- Simple to install
- Economically priced
- ROLL-FORMED arch design for maximum strength
- Wood for sidewall framing supplied by customer

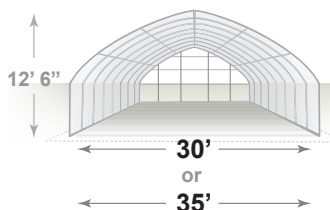

Conley's CF 1100 With Side Walls

Main Features:

- Two-piece arch
- Easy installation
- Economically priced
- ROLL-FORMED arch design for maximum strength
- Wood for sidewall framing supplied by customer
- Three runs of purlins

Conley's CF 1200 Arched Roof with Side Walls

Main Features:

- Heavy-duty arch to column connection
- 3" tall ROLL-FORMED arch design for maximum strength
- Easy installation
- Economically priced
- Wood for sidewall framing supplied by customer
- Five runs of double-bolted purlins
- Arch slips over and bolts directly to sidewall column

NOTE: Conley's cold frame structures represent non-code designs and are not recommended for regions of heavy snow or high winds.

Doors, clamps, nuts, bolts and more are available for Conley's Cold Frames.

Call our greenhouse department for more information - Toll Free 800-377-8441 - www.conleys.com